

TO CORRESPONDENTS

A number of our correspondents do not send in their budgets of news in time, and as a result they are crowded out at the last minute.

The rumor that Mr Haggard is to be made Postmaster General is merely an intangible report.

Hon J H Chapleau was offered the portfolio of Postmaster General but preferred remaining Secretary of State.

The Canada Citizen has changed its form, and now comes out as a four page of seven columns. It keeps in the front rank of temperance advocates.

The Hamilton Spectator's Yankee boomer has not advertised the American Falls to any great extent for the past week or ten days. Why is this thus?

Many people will have many opinions in regard to Niagara Falls, but all will have to admit that it keeps up its reputation as the champion fool-killer.

MR HENDERSON, the Tory temperance candidate, has been unseated in Halton. On account of the whisky developments of the trial it is not believed that he will claim a temperance plank should he again be the candidate of his party in that riding.

The Manitoba elections, which took place on Wednesday, demonstrated the fact that Macdonaldism is dead in that Province. Out of a House of thirty-eight members only four Tories have been returned, and of these John Norquay, Sir John's great henchman, is reported to be elected in Kildonan by a majority of only 2 votes.

MR PAT PURCELL still holds the fort in Glangarry. Mr F. S. MacLennan, Donald McMaster's partner, received a cablegram Monday last bringing the news that the Privy Council had refused leave to appeal the case of Kennedy v. Purcell (the Glangarry election case), on the ground that it was not within the province of the Crown to interfere in election cases which belong solely to the jurisdiction of the Canadian courts.

CANADIAN SALT.

The Toronto Mail, which is by all odds the best edited paper in Canada today, has a leading article on the subject of Canadian salt, suggested by the letter of Prof. Robertson, of the Agricultural College, which appeared in last week's SIGNAL.

The Professor adds that he learned last February when in Wisconsin that Canadian salt is used with much satisfaction in the United States; also that one of the largest and most successful packing establishments in Chicago is known to use several thousands of tons annually.

Word has been received from Chicago of the death in that city of Hugh Gardner, who formerly conducted a hardware store in this town.

Mr Montague Raymond, of Hamilton, piano tuner, will be in town next week. Orders for tuning left at this office will receive prompt attention.

Lightning never strikes twice in the same place. Neither does a mule. The reason of this is because the place is never there after the first strike.

Mr and Mrs Moffatt, of St Paul, were the guests of Mrs Geo. Acheson last week. Mrs Moffatt is a daughter of our former townsmen, Mr. F. R. Mann.

Mr Will Hutchison, Man., is paying his relatives a two weeks' visit after an absence of two years. He looks as if no surplus flesh is needed in Hustlerville.

When the noonday repast was on the table, the new girl walked into the sitting room and remarked in an off-hand manner: "Will you be pleased to inaugurate the matriculation of the meridian menu?" Ah! there,

Look at the list of reasonable goods just received at Saunders & Son, a lot of crumpled preserving kettles cheap enough for the price. Also, fruit presses, sieves and flour sifters. We don't sell soap work, our tinware is all first class.

Save that the Calcutta games are over for another year, it would be a good thing for the managers to look up some additional attractions to sandwich in with their sports next year. Even in business it is found necessary to make great attractions to keep a regular run of customers. Sallow the photographer is making a big success in fine picture framing in addition to his regular line.

Under the care of his sister, who is at present the guest of Miss Horton, who is nursing him, we hope he will soon be convalescent. His mother, Mrs Finlay, came to Guelph to see him by late train on Tuesday night.

Rather Thin Lager.

Some of the boys got hold of a keg of lager belonging to one of the public places of refreshment on Dominion Day, and stowed it carefully away in a house not far from the Square. The owner of the keg got on to the racket, and entered with the spirit of the joke. He first found out where the lager was stowed away, and then, while the other chaps were up town looking for a bung-stopper to broach the keg, he went and substituted a keg filled with rain water for the keg filled with lager. Then he went into the next lot, and enjoyed the fun while the other fellows opened the substituted keg, and gave vent to their astonishment and disgust when, after broaching the beer barrel, they discovered that the percentage of alcohol was less even than in McBride's blue ribbon beer.

His Pocket Picked of $274.

As the 11 o'clock passenger train on the Grand Trunk Line was leaving the Brush-street depot, Detroit, Saturday evening, David Fisher, of Goderich, Ont., had his pocket picked of $274. Three men were seen to jump from the train, but although the train dispatcher notified the police at once no clue to the thieves could be obtained.

She Hooks a Bachelor While He Gets a Speckled Beauty.

The "fishing" social is the latest style of amusement, which is quite a novelty. The ladies occupy one room, and the other—which is supposed to represent a fishing pond—is occupied by the gentlemen, each of whom has a string tied to his right hand. These strings are passed over the trawler and tied to a chair, which lady selects a string and whoever happens to be on the end of it is entertained by her during the evening.—Exchange.
