

CLEARANCE SALE... Clearance Sale... CLEARANCE SALE...

No place in the store is devoid of magnetism just now. Every day brings to our knowledge some things that should go faster and they go faster for less money.

To-Night's Bargains

- only white bed sheets, best quality, largest size, our regular 70c and 75c to-night... 10 dozen men's linen collars, two different styles, new shapes, regular 10c, to-night...

There is not a line mentioned but's a money saver. Visit the cheap cash store to-night. We close every Thursday at one o'clock during and August.

Northway & Anderson.

Our Success

In the Dry Goods business was not attained by sensational advertising—but by honest dealing—honest advertising—always having in stock what we advertise, therefore receiving the confidence of the people.

- Beautiful wraparound goods (washing colors) special, per yard... Bleached cotton, 37 inches wide, extra value, per yard... Ladies' net corsets worth 50c pair, to clear...

Bargains in Men's Underwear! Bargains in Ladies' Underwear! Bargains in Hosiery! Bargains in Gloves!

Ghant's Cheap Store

Right beside the Horton Market

Advertisement for Famous Klondyke Steamships, featuring the Canadian Pacific and listing routes to Alaska and the Yukon.

FIGHTING CONTINUES

British Troops at Malakand Still Harassed

BY THE MAD MULLAH'S TRIBES.

Repulsed by the Britons—Additions to the Fanatical Hordes—Greece Must Fix a Time for Payment of Indemnity Before Turkey Gets Out of Thessaly.

Sima, July 30.—A despatch to The Times from Sima says that the losses of the enemy in the fighting Thursday night are believed to have been more than on any previous occasion. The fact that the Mullahs were wounded and killed in the fighting is a sign of the British position. The theory is that the Mullahs have been driven back to the hills to the right of the British position.

Chief of Police Killed

London, July 30.—The British press today says that the chief of police of London was killed in the fighting Thursday night.

GREEK MUST PAY UP

Before the Turks will begin the Evacuation of Thessaly.

Paris, July 30.—A despatch to The Times from Constantinople says that the signing of the preliminary agreement by the Greeks for the payment of the indemnity to the Turks is a condition of the evacuation of Thessaly.

British Ship Sunk

Auckland, N.Z., July 30.—The British ship Tasmania, Captain Gordon, from Calcutta, ran aground on the reef off Cape Maria, at the northern extremity of this island, this morning and sank immediately.

Empire Bill to Meet Tomorrow

Berlin, July 30.—A session has been opened in Dresden by the opening of the Reichstag for the Empire Bill.

Andre and his Balloon

Paris, July 30.—M. Andre, who superintended the balloon preparation for his expedition to the north of the North Pole, has returned home.

Britain accepts the Conference

London, July 30.—The British Foreign Office has accepted the proposal of the United States for an international conference on the subject of the evacuation of Thessaly.

Chalons-le-Mans in London

London, July 30.—The British press today says that the French army has been successful in its operations in the north of France.

THE LAWYERS HAVE GOT THROUGH TALKING TO THE JOURNALIST CONFERENCE.

London, July 30.—The members of the Journalist Conference have been successful in their negotiations with the lawyers.

MRS. SIMPSON'S DEATH

London Hair Dressers' Parlor Set to Fire

London, July 30.—A fire broke out in the hair dressers' parlor of Mrs. Simpson, which resulted in the death of the woman.

Throat Trouble Cured

"I used Dr. Cass's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for severe throat trouble," writes Mrs. Hopkins, of 231 Hathersett street, Toronto.

FROM THE KLONDIKE

Inspector Strickland on the Way to Ottawa

BY DYE AND THE CHILCOOT PASS

Is the Route for Poor Men to Take, He Says Some in Opinion About the Weather in the Yukon Country—Canada Collecting Duty on Goods Brought In.

Winnipeg, July 30.—(Special.)—Inspector Strickland of the Northwest Mounted Police, who has just returned from the Yukon, arrived here this morning.

Regarding the best route to reach the country, he said that he would advise a poor man to go by Dyea and the Chilcoot Pass.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

INSPECTOR STRICKLAND ON THE WAY TO OTTAWA

BY DYE AND THE CHILCOOT PASS

Is the Route for Poor Men to Take, He Says Some in Opinion About the Weather in the Yukon Country—Canada Collecting Duty on Goods Brought In.

Winnipeg, July 30.—(Special.)—Inspector Strickland of the Northwest Mounted Police, who has just returned from the Yukon, arrived here this morning.

Regarding the best route to reach the country, he said that he would advise a poor man to go by Dyea and the Chilcoot Pass.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

Inspector Strickland said that he would not advise anyone to start now, as no one would have time to pack the amount of provisions that he would need over the summer.

SCHOOL TEACHER IN LUCK

He Went to the Gold Fields Over the Canadian Route and Brought Out $20,000 in Nuggets.

San Francisco, July 30.—The latest arrival from the Klondike is Albert D. Gray, formerly a school teacher in Grand Rapids, Mich. Mr. Gray got here yesterday, bringing $20,000 in nuggets.

He says he is the first man who went to Dawson via the Stikine River route. He reports that the route is interesting and that the Canadian Government is contemplating the building of a road from Telegraph Creek to Lake Tesho.

From this lake to Dawson there would be a clear route. The rocks on the Yukon 200 miles above Dawson were blasted out.

CANADA EXACTS DUTY.

Customs Officers and Constables Going Up to Dyea to Assist the Mounted Police in Collecting It.

Victoria, B.C., July 30.—There is a crowd of indignant gold-seekers in town. Two hundred of them came from Seattle and their outfits to take the steamer Islander for Dyea. Arriving here, they found that not a pound of goods would be allowed to enter the Klondike district without paying the regular Canadian duty.

Some of them decided upon payment of the duty here, but others are going with the expectation of evading the customs officers. This is hardly possible, as the customs officers are going up on the Islander, accompanied by a force of constables, who will assist the Mounted Police now there to enforce the laws.

Taking Out $1800 a Day. San Francisco, July 30.—Mrs. Mitchell of this city, sister of Jerome Madson, who had gone to the Klondike on the Pacific Railroad, received a letter today from her son, who went to the Klondike recently. He writes that he is taking out $1800 a day from his claim.

BRIDGET WAS IN GREAT LUCK.

P. B. Wear's Cook captures a Klondike Mine she had hoped to find.

Chicago, July 30.—P. B. Wear of the North American Transportation Company says some women do well in the Klondike region. A year ago he and Mrs. Wear were rejoiced in the possession of a cook, whose name was Bridget. One day Bridget announced her intention of going to Alaska. Mr. Wear reproached her. "You can't mine," he said. "That's true," answered the woman, "but there's them that can."

A woman of stylish appearance and highly educated, Mrs. Wear's sister, Mrs. Mitchell, extended a princely allowance to her. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook. She told him that before she had set out she recognized his old cook.

Apply to CHRYSLER & FRICK, Solicitors for Assignee St. Thomas