McGrath's Dirty Tactics

Yesterday McGrath made another bad break of the kind which has made his name a by-word and reproach in the community, and which prompted the Plaindealer on Saturday to declare that "McGrath's name politically stands for everything that is lowest and basest in our public life" and to warn the People's Party leaders that "the less he is heard of in this campaign the better for the Government."

Snappy Portraits.

nett was seen in St. John's West

The Gibbs faction are holding powers and vowing vengeance on Downey and the Big Chief, if their "Little Man" doesn't get what he is after. But they forget that their "Little Man" is about as powerful in political circles as a hen.
The monkey-whiskered individual who holds a soft job in the Post Office, should bear in mind that it is hard to strike a job like that, and that if he persists in working underhanded in this election against the Liberals he will only have himself to blame for losing his job. Liberals are not going to be as easy as in days gone by. So you of the stumpy beard take heed and mind your job."

Obituary.

MRS. MARGARET STACK.

The death occurred yesterday at Perry Harbour of an estimable personage. This was Mrs. Margaret Stack, wife of Mr. Thomas Stack, of that place. Mrs. Stack was formerly Miss Heffernan, and was a sister of Mr.
Martin Heffernan, and was about 65 years old at the time of her death.
Mrs. Stack had been in failing health for some years and was for a while treated in the General Hospital. Besides her husband, Mr. Thomas Stack, who is so well and favourably known, there are left the following children: Miss Margaret, Mrs. Margaret, of Perry Harbour; Mrs. Margaret, of Arkon, Ohio; Mrs. Gurney, of Canton, Ohio; Mr. John Stack, at Cobalt, and Thomas, Leo and Joseph, all now at Perry Harbour. To the bereaved family and relatives the Evening Telegram extends its sympathy.

Mr. Dooley's Reply.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir.—Answering J. M. Browne's letter in your issue of yesterday, I wish to state that I employed Mr. Browne as advertising solicitor out of pity as he gave me to understand that he was in needy circumstances. He was to work on a commission basis.
He had no authority to collect a cent of the money due for advertising. He was dismissed for good and sufficient reasons which I do not care to state here. I did not need Mr. Browne's services, but I was willing to give him a chance to earn a little money as his condition was pitiable. If Mr.

Browne thinks that he has been unjustly treated, he can easily find redress in the courts.

Yours sincerely,

W. M. DOOLEY.

MINARD'S LINIMENT RELIEVES NEURALGIA.

Bay Roberts Ready for the Fight.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Mr. Editor.—The few supporters of the Picnic Party in this town have received a rude shock. During the last fortnight they were consoling themselves with the thought that Sir R. Bond would not accede to the requests of his numerous friends and re-enter the political arena. Mr.
Coaker and the Fishermen's Union have been painted in the worst possible colors ostensibly for the purpose of prejudicing the mind of Sir Robert Bond and his associates. Their devices have failed. Sir Robert, after due consideration, has responded to the call and stands to-day acclaimed as the incorruptible parliamentarian of our country.

Excitement ran high when it was known that Sir Robert's decision would appear in Saturday's Telegram, and considerable impatience was manifested by the opponents of the present Government. The train-case, bringing the word that we all so anxiously sought. To the casual observer, however, it was apparent that the leaders knew of Sir Robert's decision before the Telegram came, for gloom and despondency were depicted on the countenances. The glad-dings, however, quickly spread from one to the other, until Bay Roberts as a whole was in possession of it.
Many wended their way to their homes with a feeling of safety and satisfaction, because this decision meant the finish of the worst Government since Newfoundland has been a self-governing colony. Sir Robert Bond's name stands here for what is fair and right, and his candidly received such a measure of support as will astonish the whole country. From the end of the district to the other there comes the oft-recurring saying, "The Grabbals must go." Dissatisfaction and disgust are in evidence on all hands, and many of the People's Party supporters openly declare that it is no use to oppose the Bond-Coaker combination.

PATSY, MCGRATH, FAITHFULLY
PORTRAYED.

Remember, men of the East, West, North and South, that one of Morris's own supporters in the Plaindealer charges "that the name of P. T. Mc-Grath stands for all that is low and base and vile," and yet this is the unhappy individual who endeavours to blacken others and to act in defence of clericalism in relation to whom some paragraphs in the Advocate have been wilfully and villainously misquoted and misapplied. No wonder that one of the Morris supporters faithfully warned him against any recognition of support from the clergyman's friend! I wonder if the professionals of McGrath or the mysterious union existing between him and Morris, which it has been said cost the colony about $10,000 during the past four years.—Com.

More Of It!

A GLARING ACT OF INJUSTICE.
It is said that the present ill-founded Government have committed another glaring act of injustice in the Postal Department, by the appointment of a noted West End heeler to the position so ably filled by Mr. Cox, who has spent many years of life in the postal service. Mr. Cox is appointed to a place provided for him upstairs in the building where there is "but little to do, to make room for the man with the Apostolic name, at $800 a year, while the faithful Mr.
Cox is to suffer some reduction. The Government have from time to time been warned against making promotions and appointments that cannot now be duly authorized. This we learn has been done solely on the Premier's authority. It is further said that this concession was bestowed by the threat of defeat. We cannot see how such an egregious blinder could have been committed by the Premier, which perhaps will help as much as anything else to curtail his votes and lose his election.

Carbonear Hails Sir Robert Bond.

Editor The Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—Carbonear is delighted over the fact that Newfoundland's greatest statesman, the Right Hon. Sir Robert Bond, has decided to lead the Opposition forces on to victory at the polls in November next. We are dependent on him to put an end to craft and grabblism. It is an undisputed fact Carbonear has suffered more in that particular than any other district in the country since the present Government was elected to power. Craft, favoritism and family appointments has been their policy, while everything pertaining to the public welfare has been neglected. Carbonear is a place of paid patriots and placemen which is the make up of the Morris Party.
Come on, Sir Robert, victory is yours.
We congratulate you on the noble stand you have taken, your name stands for all that is noble and true.

Yours truly,
UNITED LIBERAL.

There are some keen shots in the Pat O'Neill will be the winner, while others think that Sgt. Noseworthy has a good chance.

Contemptible!

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—One does not expect pearls from swine, but the article in last night's Herald in reference to Mr. Herder, is so excessively disgusting that Tories and Liberals alike are one in denouncing McGrath as a contemptible and unprincipled fellow, who has once more outraged all sense of decency in holding up a private transaction, perfectly ordinary, honest and straightforward in itself, and giving it publicity with a coloring that can only emanate from a disappointed, jealous and inferior mind.

Single-handed, Mr. Herder has made the Telegram what it is to-day: absolutely the greatest and best newspaper in Newfoundland.

Unaided by Government patronage, we have seen its circulation going up by leaps and bounds during the past four years, and by its columns we have seen that business people recognize that as an advertising medium it outclasses all others.

Aided by Government patronage and a share-list, can the Herald say the same?

The article is one of the most brutal and low imaginable, and will only serve to sicken anew Tories and Liberals alike of this Honourable (ex God!) McGrath, who takes no advantage of the passing years to change the unenviable reputation which he has ever enjoyed, for tactics that ignore reason and argument and cling only to abuse.

Yours for a change of Government.

Match for Guards.

The football match between the Guards and Catholic Cadets this evening promises to bring a record. The Cadets do not forget the kindness of the Guards in turning over their pretty little boat to them in which they won hands down. Charlie Quick and other popular boys of the Meib-olite Guards will be seen in the forward rank, and I would ask all the people who can come to come to St.
George's Field, this evening.

The proceeds go to the M. G. B. boys new armoury. Now make the proceeds large. St. John's Telegram.

by all means get a Rubberbrush. The Rubberbrush Shaving Brush—the brush the hairs of which, being embedded in hard rubber, will not come out—has long passed the experimental stage, and is known throughout North America as the reliable shaving brush.
It is made in several different styles, with different kinds of hair, hog, badger, etc., and at prices ranging from 60 cents to $3.50; but all possess the same characteristic—the hairs will stay in place till the brush is worn to a stump. Come and look at these fine brushes. We can also supply you with a razor, a strop and shaving soap if you need it, at various reasonable prices. If your shaving kit is not complete, now is your time to put it in full order.
