"THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS"

Supplied Under Royal Warrant of Appointment to

HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE V.

Evening Telegram.

FRIDAY, July 17, 1914.

Our Royal Guest.

The Duke of Connaught has departed from Newfoundland and left behind him a pleasant memory of his visit. Gentle in bearing, unaffected in accent, plain of speech, he carries himself as a good old English gentleman of royal stock. Newfoundland honoured his coming as a son of Victoria, a brother of Edward, the uncle of the King, a Field Marshal of the Army and the Governor General of Canada. She honours him the more after having seen him, shared his smile, noticed his tact, and seen how simple and unaffected a scion of the Royal House can be.

Newfoundland has had many such visits. The visit of King Edward as Prince of Wales is within the memory of many. The visit of King George when Duke of Cornwall is within the memory of many more. These visits with that of the Duke of Connaught all tend to strengthen the affection of the people for the Royal family, and this is as it should be, for loyalty to the King is the chief link which binds the widely scattered Dominions and Dependencies of the Empire together. As our memory of the royal visit is pleasant, so may be the recollections of His Royal Highness. The weather proved favourable and citizens did their best to live up to the occasion and succeeded.

Sagona Back.

The s.s. Sagona, Capt. Kennedy, arrived from the northward at 11 p.m. yesterday. The ship was as far north as Cook's Harbor and reports very little improvement in the fishery along the coast. On Monday last, traps operating from Goose Cove to Cook's Harbor secured fine hauls, one of them taking 60 quintals and the others averaging from 10 to 20 qts. On Tuesday the traps in the same section were hauled for only 25 fish. The Sagona brought a small freight and these passengers: Melin Noah, D. Noah and 2 in steerage.

Here and There.

OLD COMRADES.—The C. L. B. Old Comrades will meet to-night for drill preparatory to attending Divine Service at Quidi Vidi with the Brigade on Sunday next.

ICE CAUSED WRECK.—The name of the schr. that was lost on the Labrador Coast is the Nellie W. Roberts. Butt master. She was wrecked at Stag Bay, and caused by coming in contact with ice.

MORWENNA ARRIVES.—The Black Diamond Liner Morwenna, Capt. Holmes, arrived from Montreal via Gulf ports to-day, bringing one-half cargo and 57 passengers, all of which are round trippers.

POLICE COURT.—Only one prisoner appeared in Court to-day, a drunk and disorderly who was released. Yesterday there was only one prisoner also. This speaks well despite the celebrations that took place.

NAVY MAN OVERBOARD.—Last evening when the bandmen of H. M. S. Essex were getting ready to go aboard, one of the members, the big drummer, made a false step and went overboard. The man was quickly fished out by comrades.

NOTICE.—The adjourned monthly meeting of the St. John's T. A. and B. Society will be held on this Friday evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is requested. By order, GEO. J. COUGHLAN, Sec'y.—July 17, 1914.

55 YEARS AWAY.—Mr. George H. Cullen is now in the city, having arrived here recently from Philadelphia. He is a native of St. John's and was 55 years in the United States, where he made good. He left here in 1859, the year before the late King Edward VII. visited this Colony. Mr. Cullen has no relatives here at present and is surprised at the improvements of the city since he left.

Glazed foliage and fruit are used together on many fashionable hats.

Vessel Lost; Crew Saved.

A message to the Deputy Minister of Customs, this morning, stated that the schr. Miriam, W. Walters, master, which left here yesterday, was lost last night off the Horse Chops on the way to Trinity with supplies. The crew escaped in their boat but did not save any of their belongings. The Miriam is a 55-ton schooner, and is owned by Joseph Morris, of Trinity. She loaded supplies at James Baird, Ltd., and yesterday morning left for Trinity. No further particulars have been received up to press hour.

Dies in Attempt to Rescue Child.

Montreal, Que., July 13.—Exceptionally tragic were the deaths of Mrs. Wm. Deniers, 1618, St. Dominique street, Montreal, and her two-year-old daughter yesterday. The child's death occurred first. She stuck a lighted feather in an oil can there was an explosion and the little girl was dead in a short time. The mother was an invalid, having been operated upon recently. In attempting to save her child she over exerted herself, the wound was re-opened, and she died three hours afterwards in the hospital.

Halt by Wives Make Homes Happy.

Geneva, July 11.—Health certificates for brides is the demand of the Swiss Society of Public Utility for Women, an influential organization having branches in the chief cities of Switzerland. The aim of the society is to obtain healthy wives and children in order to better the race and also make for the happiness of the home. It has hopes that later the Government will take a hand in the agitation and require a certificate of health from both the bride and the bridegroom before sanctioning a marriage. The society, which is working very quietly, is strongly supported by the medical profession and the university profession.

Smaller shoe buckles are in favor. However they are more elaborate.

Stephano Beat Digby to Halifax.

When the Red Cross liner Stephano arrived at Halifax from St. John's, Nfld., at five o'clock yesterday morning, her officers were much elated over the fact that they had knocked three and one-half hours from the time of the Furness liner Digby, with which they had raced from port to port. The Digby left St. John's at 1.30 p.m. Saturday, and the Stephano sailed at 3.15 p.m., arriving at Halifax at 5 a.m. Monday morning, the Digby arriving two hours later. The Stephano passed her rival at 9 a.m. Sunday, and the two ships kept within sight of each other the rest of the voyage.

Considerable betting was done on both ships, the second engineer winning the pool among the officers of the Stephano.

The Stephano had 85 saloon passengers, 35 of whom embarked at Halifax. The Florizel which arrived in at noon from New York had 105 passengers, 13 of whom were for Halifax, and 80 of whom were round trippers to St. John's.

Next week the Stephano is booked to bring up Lieutenant Porte and party with the airship that is to attempt the transatlantic flight.—Chronicle, July 14.

Rhodes No Dude.

Cecil Rhodes was not much of a dresser. When Premier of Cape Colony, he usually wore a flannel suit which badly wanted cleaning and a dilapidated slouch hat. His successor in office, Sir Gordon Sprigg, who wore a black frock coat even in the hottest weather, once made an effort to enforce the wearing of "respectable" dark clothes in the Cape Parliament. But Rhodes would not have it. He said in Parliament that if he could not help to legislate in comfortable clothes, he would not help at all, and he thought that members would agree with him. They did.

Pepper Colors Canaries

Till recently, the dinner-table was the only place pepper was to be found in use. But it has been discovered that there is nothing to compare with it for giving a brilliant color to canaries.

It has almost a magical effect in making a canary golden as a buttercup or saffron as a crocus. The pepper should be given when the bird is moulting.

The exhibitor who first discovered accidentally the wonderful effect of pepper on the color of canaries' feathers reaped in first prizes by the score, and there was a good deal of suspicion that his results were due to skilful dyeing, till he made his secret public.

Now, practically every owner of show birds knows the magical virtues of the pepper pot.

Mother is Drowned Trying to Save Boy.

Montreal, July 13.—Mrs. William J. Laverly, 430 Mance Street, Montreal, was drowned at Balmoral yesterday while trying to save her 11 year old son from drowning. The boy had been using water wings in the water, but the wings got out of place and he was in imminent danger of his life. He was saved by Dr. and Mrs. Meighen of Montreal. His mother's body was recovered and brought to this city last night.

Ulster War Hysteria.

As Shown by Leading Financial Journal.

New York, April 2.—A cable from London to the Journal of Commerce says:—

"The London Economist, in support of its contention that the 'civil war' talk is largely hysteria, prints a table of prices of leading Ulster securities showing present prices as compared with February 14. The list comprises municipal, bank, railway and industrial securities, all but one of which shows advances ranging from 3/4 in Great Northern Railway debentures to 4 points in Belfast and County Down Railway ordinary.

The one exception to the general advance is Yorkshire flax securities, the ordinary and preferred of which are unchanged, while the debentures are one per cent. low.

HENRY BLAIR

The Eastern Trust Company!

The Eastern Trust Company has installed safety deposit boxes in its vault in the Pitts Building, Water Street. These boxes can be hired at a moderate rent by the year.

Persons making a will in which they appoint the Eastern Trust Company executor may deposit their wills in the vault of the Company without charge.

An impression has gone abroad that the Company charges a fee upon the making of a will which the Company is appointed executor. This is an error. The Company charges no fee until after the death of a testator and the Company has undertaken the execution of the trusts under the will. It then charges the same fee as is allowed to ordinary executors.
