The Eastern Trust Company.

A few reasons why an estate can be better administered by the Eastern Trust Company than by a personal executor or administrator:—

1. The Company affords the estate absolute security; it has a paid-up capital of $331,000.00, and a reserve fund of $225,300.00.

2. It has a long experience in the work of administering estates; it is incorporated for this business of acting as a trustee, and, unlike many other trust companies, it does so other.

3. Its existence is perpetual. Your estate, in the event of the death of a personal executor or administrator, must look around for a substitute, and the work of administration is impeded during that time, and the new executor is unfamiliar with the policy of his predecessor, and confusion results. This company's existence is perpetual, and there is a continuity of policy in its administration that the death of its officers does not break.

4. It possesses the confidence of governments, universities and prominent charities and administers their funds.

5. A number of other advantages which will appear in due course.

STAFF LEAVE GORIZIA.

PARIS, To-day. A Milan correspondent of the Petit Parisien, sends the following despatch: Gorizia has been evacuated by the Austrian General Staff.

THE FIGHT FOR WARSAW: STIFF RUSSIAN RESISTANCE.

LONDON, To-day.

At only the northern point of the pincers, which the Austro-Germans for more than a week have been trying to close round Warsaw, and the Russian armies in the Polish salient, did they make any progress during the last few days. At this point they forced its way across the Narew River between the fortresses Pultusk and Rozan, advancing toward the Bug River, which stands for the greater part of the way between it and Warsaw and the Vilna railway, its objective. At other points which Von Mackensen is directing at Lublin Cholm railway, they have hardly gained a yard of ground since it reached the Village of Reiovetz, just south of the railway. Offering a stubborn resistance to the German advance, the Russians are making a continual threat on Von Mackensen's flank along the Bug River from East Cholm, East Lemberg, between Krylow and Sokal. Their attacks have been particularly severe, compelling the Germans to send reinforcements probably intended to support Von Mackensen and meet them along the Vistula. To the southwest of Warsaw, there has been little change except for the occupation by the Germans of some positions evacuated by the Russians when they drew their line. While Warsaw is under heavy pressure, the Austro-Germans have a lot of stiff work before them. If they are to bring their operations to a successful ending by its capture. After crossing Narew they still have the broader bug lined with a fortified face, while in the south, the Russians have good positions north of the Lublin Cholm railway.

THE RUSSIAN DEVICE TO MEET POISONOUS GAS.

LONDON, To-day.

Russians have developed a still but effective method of meeting the German attacks with poisonous gases, according to the Post's Petrograd correspondent. The Russians dig a shallow gutter some distance in front of their position filling it with moss. As soon as scouts report that gas attacks are being prepared the Russians pour a considerable quantity of Petroleum into this gutter. The oil drenches the moss and soaks into the soil. When the gas cloud begins to appear the moss is set on fire and the flames rise quickly, even the soil burning fiercely until the Petroleum is exhausted. The effect is to change entirely the air current for some distance carrying the gas cloud above the troops.

FRENCH DESTROY DEPOT.

TOULON, To-day.

The French destroyer Le Bison, has demolished an Austrian submarine and aeroplane depot on Lagosta Island, Southernmost of the Dalmatian Group in the Adriatic, with the loss to the French of only one man killed.

This despatch indicates the French navy is co-operating with the Italian against Austria in the Adriatic Sea.

ATTACK ON RIVA STATION.

ROME, To-day.

On July 23, two Italian seaplanes dropped 18 bombs on the railroad station with excellent results. The enemy's artillery fired on the machines, without causing any damage.

CRITICIZE WILSON'S REFERENCES TO SUBMARINE.

LONDON, To-day.

Seven of the morning papers declare they are unable to understand President Wilson's reference in the latest note to Germany to events of last two months, which have proved that it is possible to conduct submarine operations in accordance with the accepted principles of warfare. The papers argue there has been no change of German methods in this respect. The naval correspondent of the Times asserts the blockade of the past two months does not bear out the view of President Wilson and points out that the few intervals of decreased activity have always been followed with renewed warning and with loss of life both of British and neutral vessels. He says there is not the slightest indication that the German commanders have changed their methods, and that Wilson's words therefore taken in their ordinary acceptance cannot be justified. The Times says it is possible for Wilson that he may have had from the British Government some information which is withheld from the public, but argues that so far as facts have been revealed, there is no ground for supposing any changes have been made in the instructions given to German submarine commanders.

GERMANY WILL MARK TIME.

BERLIN, To-day.

There is every indication that considerable time will elapse before the German Government makes any attempt to answer the latest American note. Should the United States protest to Great Britain in regard to the restrictions placed upon shipping, which it is reported here, is now being formulated and will be couched in firm tones. It is considered possible that the German reply would not be brusque in the absence of evidence that the United States intended to force Great Britain to abandon the policy which Germany considers illegal. Hope has not been abandoned however that the United States may intend to assail vigorously Great Britain's method of controlling the sea. Until this point becomes clear the Berlin Foreign Office probably will mark time.

WEATHER.—It is calm and fine along the line of railway to-day with the temperature ranging from 48 to 60 above.

National Debts.

One result of the war has been to send up the National Debts of the various countries engaged by leaps and bounds during the eight months from August 1st, 1914, to March 31st, 1915.

Great Britain's national debt at the beginning of the war, exclusive of the debts of the British colonies, amounted to £732,000,000, and this was increased by £420,000,000 by the end of March.

France had a national debt of £1,250,000,000, which increased by £446,000,000, and Russia increased her debt of £955,000,000 by £550,000,000.

The national debt of Belgium increased £40,000,000, of Serbia £17,000,000, of Japan £36,000,000, and of Montenegro £125,000.

Germany's national debt, which at the beginning of the war was £1,284,000,000, had increased by £579,000,000 at the end of March; Austria added £140,000,000 to her previous debt of £542,000,000; and Hungary added £85,000,000 to a previous £279,000,000, making an increase in State liabilities for the Dual Monarchy of £235,000,000; while Turkey increased her total debt from £121,000,000 to £143,000,000. Thus the national debts of the Central Powers, with Turkey, show a total increase from August to March of £731,000,000, as compared with the entente countries and their allies of £1,520,000,000, the aggregate national debts of all the belligerents having increased by £2,250,000,000.
