ROYAL WEDDING AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

LONDON, April 26.—The Duke of York and Lady Elizabeth Bowe-Lyon joined hands and were before the golden altar at Westminster Abbey to-day, while all the world pours out its blessing. The service was conducted with traditional precision of British rites. Only when the bride was called upon by the Archbishop of Canterbury to repeat the solemn vows did her manner betoken any nervousness. Her voice was audibly to the vast congregation. The bridegroom gave the bride a man at a happy expression and kept her own when the bright couple through the venerable Dowager Queen gave the royal ceremony touch by moving out of her and bestowing kisses upon the guests of the party as they came to the Chancel. The Prince of Wales appeared to be the calmest of the Abbey. The wedding began promptly at 11.30. The bride, in the simplest and most gown probably ever made in royal marriage, moved slowly the steps of the Altar on the arm of her father, the Earl of Strathmore, carried no bridal bouquet, having deposited it on the tomb of the brave soldier. She was joined soon by the bridegroom who presented a striking figure in the blue uniform of the Royal Air Force, with the blue riband of the Garter across his shoulder and a golden sword at his side. The six bridesmaids stood behind the couple as the Duke and bride joined hands. The sun which had not revealed itself for several days suddenly emerged from behind the mist and its light coming through the high vaulted windows of the Abbey cast an effluence upon the gallant Duke and his lovely bride, and brought into bold relief the touches of gold, crimson and silver in the costumes of the brilliant assemblage. The Duke stood fully a head taller than Lady Elizabeth, his erect, muscular frame and ruddy countenance contrasting with the delicate figure of the bride, whose robes of unrelieved white seemed to accentuate the paleness of her figure.

LOYALTY BY COMPULSION.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Sixty-six employees of the Radio Corporation of America, mostly Canadians by birth, will lose their positions unless they become citizens of the United States. J. G. Harbord, President of the Company issued an order yesterday requiring all alien employees to take out naturalization papers. I they did not he said, they are at liberty to leave.

A PACIFIST PACIFICATION.

LONDON, April 26.—Ramsay MacDonald, Leader of the Labor Opposition is rapidly acquiring fame as mediator in industrial disputes. Recent achievements have been intervention in preventing a strike in the building trades, and settlement of the Farm Laborers strike in Norfolk County.

THE DICTIONARY.
The dictionary's full of words
Which run from a to Z,
For any man to choose and use
In prose or melody.

The stories of the world are there,
The songs which men shall sing,
The books of ages still unborn,
And many a tender thing.

The best lies sleeping on a page,
The sermon waits a voice,
The poem waits an artist's call,
An artist's lovely choice.

It is the color box of speech,
With all its various hues,
Wherein are found the little tubes
That all who paint must use.

And one man slashes red and blue
And dull his canvas seems,
While one with deft and subtle touch
Can give the world his dreams.

So stands the dictionary there,
With words piled, row on row,
Waiting the teller of the tale
To set them all aflow.

Place two or three chopped mustard pickles, a clove or two, chopped onion and one-fourth cup of vinegar in the bottom of the bean jar.

Let Us Be Liberal!

Editor Evening Telegram.

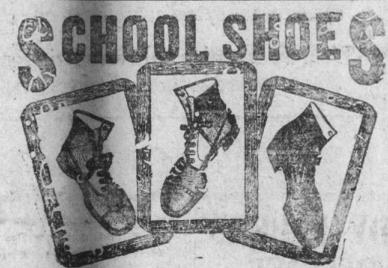

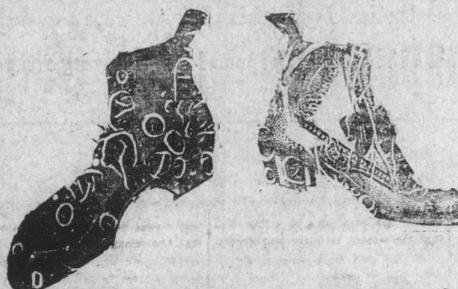

Dear Sir—No redistribution of seats in the Assembly, on the basis of the census of 1921, has yet been made. That is one of the duties neglected by the Squires-Coaker Government. The census of 1921 gave $0,821 as the number of Roman Catholics in the Island, and 157,741 as the number of Protestants, a total population of 238,572, and as there are 36 representatives in the Assembly, the unit for each is 6,630, so that the Roman Catholics are entitled to elect twelve members, and a fraction of about one-fifth. There are, in fact, thirteen Roman Catholic candidates now standing on each side—St. John's, 5; Harbor Main, 2; Ferryland, 2; Placentia, 3; St. George's, 1, so that strictly according to figures, they are seeking over representation to the extent of four-fifths of a man. This part of a man Mr. Brian Dunfield seeks to be!

When Mr. Dunfield alleges that there are 14,000 Protestants in St. John's East who have no direct representation by men of their own creed amongst the candidates of the two major parties, he is not telling the whole truth, for he fails to draw attention to the fact that the Roman Catholics of Brigus, Harbor Grace, Carbonear, Bay de Verde, Bonaville and Burin, especially, get no direct representation by men of their own creed. The Protestants of those districts are over represented, just as the Roman Catholics of St. John's are, and the discrepancy in one offset that in the other. As to the four-fifths of a man lost to the Protestants under present arrangement, the loss is due to the fact that the Roman Catholic population of the Island has not grown as rapidly as the Protestant, and in the selection of candidates, precedent has been followed rather than changing figures. It is so because it has been so!

But what difference does it make anyhow? Protestant rights are as safe in the Assembly with twenty-three Protestants as with twenty-three and four-fifths. Why not concede the four-fifths of a man to the Roman Catholic minority instead of taking a fifth of a man away from them. The majority can afford to be generous. Articles of Faith are not what the Assembly has to deal with. There is no sectarian issue in the Humber Deal. No dogmatical rights are wrapped up in the consideration of fishery regulations. So far as the Colony's trade and finances, and the rights and liberties of the people are concerned, which are the matters the Assembly has to deal with, we Protestants are as safe without as with the other four-fifths of a man.

How narrower we have grown, rather than broader, in this regard, than our fathers were. Time was when Ferryland elected a Protestant, Glen, and later, another, Goodridge, and when Harbor Grace was represented by a Roman Catholic (Shea). Placentia elected Bradshaw (C. of E.), St. John's West elected Tessier (C. of E.), and the Parsons (both father and son) were elected year after year in St. John's East, though both belonged to the Church of England. We hope to see the days of toleration returned, when men will be elected for their ability and character, and for the policy they stand for, without regard to their religious creeds. This will give a wider field of choice than now exists. I venture to suggest that when next it falls to the lot of leaders to arrange their candidates, they shall agree to include suitable Roman Catholics in their tickets for large Protestant districts, which include Roman Catholic electors, and suitable Protestants in Roman Catholic districts, where Protestants reside, and so make a beginning in breaking down the foolish practice which now obtains of living within water-tight sectarian bulwarks. The names given above will show that the Roman Catholics have in fact been more liberal in this matter than us Protestants. Let us, then, take this opportunity to reciprocate, and to begin again the wider practice. Let us, in short, resign gladly our strict right to four-fifths of a man. Let Dunfield stop in private life.

Yours truly,
PROTESTANT.
