Archibald Hunt Is the Victim of Two Alleged Thieves From Tacoma

Pays $300 for $1,000 Note and Is Now Loser Purchase Price and Bill

Archibald Hunt, colored, who gave his occupation on the police book as "president of the Maple Leaf club," in the future will hesitate a moment or two before buying United States $1,000 bills from strange negroes, even if they are offered for sale as low as $300. Archie is mourning the loss of $300 in real money, and the 1,000 bill he received in lieu of the Canadian legal tender is reposing in the pocket of the chief of police awaiting the arrival here of an of-

Samuel Brown, a Tacoma negro with a woman claiming to be his wife, also is held in the local jail for the Tacoma authorities as the couple who are accused of having been implicated in the robbery of a resident of that city. The sum stolen was $2,000 and the $1,000 bill is said to be part of the loot. Brown denies the robbery charge and also denies that he sold the bill to Hunt for $300, but the latter's story was circumstantial.
