The jubilee visitor's could not buy to any great extent, as it took nearly all their savings to see the show, and there has been considerable grumbling on the subject of the jubilee honors. The men whost names have been left out of the list are notably Liberal politicians and former ministers, who declare that the honors were given on the strictest party lines. With the exno former Liberal minister was invited to be present at the ceremony before t. Paul's Cathedral, and the members the House of Commons who arrived o late at Buckingham Palace to be hould have waited for them.
