FOX—THOMPSON.

The marriage of a Londoner in Toronto (briefly referred to in yesterday's Advertiser) is thus more fully described: Center Island was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when at 2:30 this (Wednesday) afternoon, in St. Andrew's Church, his Lordship the Bishop of Toronto celebrated the marriage of Miss Amy Seton Thompson, daughter of Mr. J. Enoch Thompson, Spanish consul, to Mr. Frederick Lesard Fox, of London, Ont., son of Mr.
Charles Fox. The little church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with water lilies and the other blossoms that the island affords. The bride wore her traveling gown of brown cloth. With the suit was worn a handsome shirt waist of white satin.
The bride's hair was a French mode of pinning velvet, with plumes of white shaded to fawn. The bridal bouquet was of white roses. Miss Allie Thompson, sister of the bride, performed the duties of bridesmaid, and wore a tailor-made gown of green. Her hair was of black velvet, with large plumes, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. Reginald Wharton was best man. After the ceremony the guests paid their respects to the newly-married couple at Orkney Cottage, which was in gala dress for the reception. Refreshments were served informally on the wide veranda. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will spend their honeymoon touring in the Maritime Provinces, and intend visiting Montreal, Quebec, and Halifax, before returning to take up their residence in Toronto.

sands of citizens will take this opportunity of hearing him. The meeting will

TORONTO'S FAIR

Big Crowds Attend—Receipts Tuesday $4,000 More Than a Year Ago.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 6.—The exhibition is going to be a great success, from the standpoint of attendance this year. The receipts on Tuesday were $4,000 greater than on the same day a year ago.
Yesterday, farmers' day, the crowd was fully up to last year's figure, 6,500 persons having paid for admission.
There is, however, no abatement of the clamor of exhibitors for improved accommodation, and the carriage-makers have warned the management that they will not show again under the present conditions.

The number of American visitors, chiefly from the States of New York and Ohio, is greater than in any former year.

PLUCKY JOE

Blacksmith Attacked by a Violent Stallion, But the Man Finished His Job.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 6.—Joseph Grummett, a blacksmith, employed in a shop on the west side of the market square, just south of Pitt street, had close call for his life Tuesday evening as the result of a vicious attack by a stallion he was shoeing.

The horse was brought into the shop by its owner, "Zack" Jackson, colored, who gave no warning of the vicious temper of the animal. In fact, Jackson claims the stallion never ventured to attack anyone before.

Grummett had just begun ripping the shoes off the animal's front feet, when he bent over and buried his teeth in Grummett's back, and, tossing his head, swung the blacksmith into the air. Another employee of the shop came to Grummett's assistance, and with difficulty succeeded in making the stallion release its hold.

OLD TIME
HOUSES....

How similar is the ancient looking house to an out of date suit. And why not, since the clothing is the house of the body? People are often judged by the appearance of their residence, as also are men often judged by the garments they wear. Those careful dressers who will be satisfied only with the most tasty and fashionable clothing are the people who deal with us. They are used to the newest and best lines, and they get these every time at this store. The styles, patterns and shades are strictly up to date.
They bear this mark —"Fit Reform"—of high degree.

TROPICAL STORM

Is on the Way to New England, Says the Weather Man.

Washington, Sept. 5.—The weather bureau has issued the following special storm bulletin:
"A tropical storm which has been moving slowly westward over the Caribbean Sea during the last few days, crossed Cuba Tuesday night, and is central this morning near Key West, Fla. Thus far the storm has been attended by heavy rains and winds of moderate force. The outlook is, however, that the center of the disturbance will move northward over the turbance promises to cause general rain over the eastern part of the southwest. It will cover the south Atlantic coast and Gulf States Thursday, the middle Atlantic States Friday and New England Friday night and Saturday. It also will terminate the period of high temperature which has prevailed east of the Mississippi."

Is This Civilization?

[Chicago Tribune.]
The story told by the Associated Press of the scenes enacted by some of the foreign troops on the road between Tien Tsin and Pekin is not only shocking in its details, but a disgrace to western civilization. The worst outrages charged against the Boxers are mild in comparison with the enormities practiced by the Russian and French soldiers, who were left unrestrained natives at will. It is to the credit of the Germans, English, Japanese and Americans that they behaved themselves with some regard to discipline and humanity, and that the officers of the last two exerted themselves successfully to protect property and life.

It was not so, however, with the Russians and French. They engaged in an orgy of plunder and slaughter, and left behind them a wake of destruction in the Pei Ho Valley. The houses of the people and their food products were ruthlessly destroyed.
The shops were looted and what could be carried away was trampled under foot and smashed. Villages were burned. The inhuman Cossacks butchered for sport. Natives trying to get back to their homes and farmers working in their fields were used as targets by these wretches. The dispatch says: "The Cossacks would pick up children, barely old enough to walk, bind them by the ankles, and beat their brains out on the sidewalks. The American officers at Taku, days after the fighting was finished, saw Russians bayonet children overboard, and throw old men, the river, clubbing them to death when they tried to swim. The Russians killed women who knelt before them and begged for mercy. Cossacks were killed while trotting along the roads with their loads, and farmers when trying to gather in their grain."

And the Russian officers looked on without protest or making any efforts to restrain their soldiers! In view of such outrages as these it is not consistent to inveigh against the cruelties of the Boxers or the uncivilized conditions of the Chinese people, to boast itself over eastern. On the other hand, it should hide its face in shame.
War at its best is inhuman, but such methods of warfare as these are the outcome of brute savagery and are a striking commentary upon western civilization. The yellow terror pales in the presence of the Cossack terror.
It will be a relief not only to Chinese but to humane persons everywhere when Russia's proposal is accepted and negotiations for peace begin. In the meantime, the missionaries who have been laboring so zealously to convert Chinese to Christianity might transfer their field of labor to the Cossacks, who have not only devastated the Pei Ho Valley, but, according to another dispatch, are exterminating the Chinese in Manchuria.
