Local Market Quotations. Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son. London, Wednesday, Jan. 24, WEEKLY REVIEW.

Receipts of grain on this market for the past Fix days have been very light, and with the exception of oats we can see little change in Wheat formed the bulk of the offerings and sold at 98c to $1, with an occasional lot selling at less and over these figures.

The price paid for oats ranged from 97c to $1;
97c and 98c ruled at the beginning of the week.
On Saturday everything soid at $1 and $1 02, until about noon, when the price settled at $1, and on Tuesday and to day's market the feeling was easier at $1. ing was easier at $1.

Very little barley or corn offered; values

Peas came in sparingly and sold at 87c to 90c. the bulk of receipts going at 88c.

No rye or buckwheat offered; prices for them are based on latest transactions.

Beans, quiet; sales 99c to $1 10 according to Eggs came in more freely. Strictly fresh sold at 18c by the basket; 20c by the dozen. Store lots sold at 14c to 16c as to quality.

Butter was freely offered and sold readily at 18c to 25c per lby coordinate. 18c to 25c per lb, according to quality and Turkeys were not as plentiful as usual. The demand was not very large and the price was quiet at 10c by the single bird and 9c by the load. Good-sized chickens sold quickly at 60c per pair, mediums at 50c and small at 40c.

Ducks scarce, sules at 70c to 80c a pair.

Beef and lamb were very plentiful; the in-duiry was good and prices steady.

Dressed hogs steady: values ranged from $5.50 to $5.60, according to the size and quality, light hogs being preferred.

Hides, skins and tallow sold readily at our quotations; supply moderate.

Apples were the only domestic fruit offering, and the price for them was quite high, choice cooking selling at $1 to $1 50 per bag.

Potatoes steady at 65c to 75c.

-The funeral of the late Malcolm D. Black took place from the residence of his oldest son, at Mapleton, on Sunday to Orwell Cemetery. The dece sed came to this country from Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1842, and with the exception of the last twelve years spent in this city, he lived in and around Mapleton where he was well known and much respected by all who James, Tucker, Wilson, Elson, Johnson, knew him. He died after an illness of three weeks in his 69th year, leaving two sons and three daughters to mourn his departure. His second son Pierce and two younger daughters live in St. Paul, Minn., the other daughter being Mrs. F. N. Soper, of this city. The pall-bearers were Messrs. L. Johnston, J. Middleton, E. Culver, W. Follic, J. Warwick and W. Charlton.

The Seats Going. Despite the very stormy weather, there was a big rush for reserved seats for the great Scottish concert on Friday evening next at the Grand Opera House box office this morning. Manager Roote was kept busy marking off sitting, and before noon several hundred were taken. There are still many choice sears, but doubtless they will all be taken, and the benevolent fund of the St. Andrew's Society materially added to thereby. The programme is a splendid one, embracing all the best local singers, Highland dancers and pipers in Ontario, including the famous comedian Goldie, of Philadelphia, who will make his first appearance here.

Railway Co-operation. W. E. McMullen and A. P. Walker, C. P. R. civil engineers, are in this city surveying ground between the C. P. R. and G. T. R. tracks near the diamond in the the union, and paid an official visit to this east end. This is an outcome of the recent meeting of railway men here. Its object was to devise some means of co-operation between the different railways in transferring freight from one to another. The C. P. R. and G. T. R. tracks here will no is postponed until to-morrow (Thursday) doubt be connected for that purpose.

Opera at Popular Prices.

Monday, Jan. 29, including Wednesday and Saturday matinees. A repertoire of unusual excellence will be sung, including "Said Pasha," new to local theater-goers. Miss Josephine Stanton, prima donna, possessing a voice of exquisite sweetness and correctness, has a decidedly attractive stage presence, and a happy faculty of making the most out of every situation and of pleasing the eye by her pertness and piquancy. Miss Stanton is ably assisted by a competent score of artists and good chorus. The prices are 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats will be on sale Friday

Will of the Late George Monaghan. The will of the late George Monaghan, one of the oldest residents of London, who died at his residence in South London on Jan. 9, has been filed with the clerk of the Surrogate Court for probate. The estate was valued at $17,276, and of this $8,150 was in real estate. To his wife, Mr. Monaghan leaves the income of one half of the estate. After the death of Mrs. Monaghan her share is to be equally divided between the children of Mrs. Margaret Bryce. The other half of the estate goes to the adopted daughter,

"I see," remarked Chief Williams to an ADVERTISER reporter this morning, "that an anonymous correspondent of the Free Press criticises P. C. Morgan's action in attempting to enter the London House bar in plain clothes, alleging, at the same time, that he is in the employment of the W. C. T. U. Such a statement is absurd as well as incorrect. The Sabbath law provides that a policeman be detached, ununiformed, to see that no business of any kind is transacted on that day. The Liquor License Act also asserts it to be the imperative duty Carried. of any such officer, upon penalty of a fine of $10 and expulsion from office, to see that the law is rigidly enforced. Previous to the ceremony an excellent spread, which was provided by the ladies, was enjoyed by all in the lower portion of the Oddfellows' Hall, and after the officers had received the degree of office in the spacious lodge room above an excellent programme was engineered through by the chairman, W. Henderson, regent of London Council. There were short speeches and funny stories by the grand regent, Bro. Hickson, and Bros. Bartlett, Bartram and Bland, of London, and A. C. Attwood, of Vanneck, interspersed by instrumental music from Messrs. Robson, Shipley, McFarland and Cameron; recitations by little Maida Robson (who, by the way, is decidedly advanced in elocution for one so young), Miss Attwood, Walter Bartlett, Charles McAndless and A. C. Attwood, and songs by Messrs. McFarland, D. H. Sells, R. Robson and C. H. Fewings. Miss Sells acted as accompanist. Invincible Council has nearly doubled its membership since its institution and has ten new applications awaiting action for next meeting. A second lunch was served by the

For the W. C. T. U.-Many New Members -Important Resolutions-Alleged Liquor and Tobacco Act Violations.

Yesterday being W. C. T. U. crusade day, the meeting was one of great interest. Every seat in Somerset Hall was occupied, and one seldom meets with a more earnest and intelligent crowd of women than were present and took part in the afternoon's proceedings. The president, Mrs. Thornley, occupied the chair. Mrs. Gordon Wright took charge of the devotional exercises, speaking for a short time on "Qualification for Service." This was followed by a reception of new members, the following ladies having been nominated: Mesdames Kerr, Hunter, Cahill, Hea, Thomas Allison, Weekes, Jarvis, Edwards, Baker, Brown, Scollick, Goodge, Hueston, Aikins, Cooper, Grant, Campbell, Gillespie, Heritage, Mawell, Armstrong, Barnes, Milier, Bailey. Adams, Gunn, Mains, Landry, Hutchinson, Ashplant, Nicholson, Stinchcombe, Cockerell, Bugler, Greenway, Woodward, Burnett, Shannon, McKerricher, Angus, Keast, Parnell, Eastwood, Higman, Wrigley, McCoombs, Sutherland, Arscott, Baker. Misses McDermott, Gurd, Magee, Gunn, Nellie Gunn, Woodward, Eliza Woodward, L. C. Fogal. Honorary members, Messrs. J. Sanders, W. T. Hamilton, A. Keenleyside and J. D. Keenleyside.

After the usual reception service Mrs. W. E. Saunders gave a short address of welcome. Each one signed the pledge and received the white ribbon. Mesdames Carson, J. W. Jones, Gordon

Wright, J. Darch, W. E. Saunders and W. J. Saunby were elected delegates to the prohibition convention, Toronto, Feb. 6. The following resolutions were read and

"Resolved, that this union gratefully acknowledge the most kind and able letter written by Dr. Arnott in defense of both our union and our beloved president against a cowardly attack which appeared in the Free Press.

"It having been brought to our attention that the license-holders in the village of Pottersburg are in daily and flagrant violation of the law: Resolved, that we as a union protest against the utter disregard of the law permitted by the license commissioners of the east riding of Middlesex, and do urge that steps be taken to arouse the attention of the temperance people of this riding:

"That the Hornse inspector be communicated with, and that we co-operate with the London and Western Union Prohibition Association in doing what we can to abate

"Also, knowledge having reached us that some places in the city were at present selling cigarettes contrary to the laws: Resolved, that a copy of the Provincial Tobacco Act be sent to all retail sellers in the city, with inclosed a slip notifying them that we are aware of the violation of the act and hope this preparatory notice will be sufficient. It was also decided to ask the co-operation of the School Board and public school teachers in looking after this matter.

"Resolved, that we tender a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. John Cameron for his kindness in presenting the ladies of the union 2nd.—A superior quality of coal with printed slips containing the papers read at last meeting."

Mrs. E. N. English. of Hellmuth College, was introduced to the union and briefly explained the aims, objects and construction of the National Council of Women. A committee was appointed to assist in preparations for the meeting to be Aberdeen.

WILL THEY FIGHT?

Troops Parading in Florida-Corbett in Hiding-The Governor Firm. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 24.—This is ne day before the promised ring fight, and on Market street, this city, the Second Battalion of the Florida State troops are marching on parade in the rain, and along the State line the Georgia State troops are patrolling on foot and on horseback under orders from Gov. Northen to repel the invasion of fighters.

Corbett is in hiding somewhere. Crowds are gathered in the court house here to hear the argument in the injunction case, and the whole community is upset with excitement. The prospects for a fight are not at all remote, but it is probable the fight will be according to rules provided by the thoughtfulness of the Marquis of Queensberry. There is one new phase or the situation which is rapidly coming into prominence, and that is that Gov. Mitchell is being supported in a very substantial way by very substantial men.
