On the eve of his departure to take the associate editorship of the Interior, Chicago, Rev. George Simpson (formerly of Westimister), was made the recipient of a handsome presentation at the hands of the Presbyterian Printing and Publishing Company, whose paper, the Canada Presbyterian, he has abiy edited for more than ten years. The affair took place in the presence of the heads of departments at the residence of the president, Mr. C. Blackett Robinson, who, in suitable terms, made reference to Mr. Simpson's long and faithful services as editor, to the pleasant relations which had always prevailed, and to the regret felt by everyone connected with the office at Mr. Simpson's departure from the city. The president then, on behalf of the company, asked the reverenced gentleman's acceptance of a beautiful gold hunting-case watch, suitably inscribed. Mr. Simpson made a feeling and suitable reply. All those present, in turn, testified to their appreciation of their former conferce's worth and ability. Mr. Simpson left yesterday afternoon for his future home.
