COAST GETS BIG BOUT

Rickard Practically Gives Up Holding Jeffries-Johnson Bout in
Utah.[Special to The Advertiser.]
Salt Lake City, Feb. 10.—James J. Jeffries and Jack Johnson will meet July 4 somewhere in or near San Francisco for the heavyweight championship of the world. This was the official but undeniably authoritative statement today. "Tex" Rickard and Jack Gleason broke off negotiations temporarily tonight with the place for the bout outwardly in the air as much as ever, but reliable inside information has it that Rickard has given up and that Gleason has won in his fight for San Francisco.

DEACON M'GUIRE

HAS 28 PITCHERS

Cleveland Has a Big Bunch, But Will Try Out a Few More.

New York, Feb. 9.—Deacon Jim McGuire, manager of the Cleveland, has 28 pitchers, including ten left-handers, on his staff, and is willing to try out a few more. McGuire has decided to play Napoleon Lajoie on first base, Bradley at third and Nichols at short field.

STANLEY KETCHEL IS

MATCHED WITH CAPONI

Michigan Lion Is Acting as His Own
Manager, and Bout Will Be
From 6 to 20 Rounds.[Special to The Advertiser.]
Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 9.—At a conference tonight, Cal Harris, of Chicago, manager of Tony Caponi, matched his protégé with Stanley Ketchel for a bout to be staged next month before the club offering the best inducements. The match was made to take the place of the one in which the latter were to have figured before the now defunct club managed by Tommy Ryan in Memphis. Ketchel, a former prizefighter, is being offered by Harris and Ketchel. The bout is to be at 160 pounds and for anywhere from 10 to 20 rounds. Ketchel is acting as his own manager in the latest deal.

JOHNSON'S CASE UP

IN EARLY SUMMER

New York Justice Strikes Trial
Off Calendar and Moves It On.

New York, Feb. 8.—The fear that criminal court proceedings may interfere with the appearance of Jack Johnson in the prize ring on July 4 was intensified in some quarters today, when Justice Gott granted the district attorney's motion to strike the charge of assault against Jack Johnson from the present calendar. Johnson's lawyer protested against this, saying his client desired an immediate trial, but the district attorney said he had not had time to prepare the case, and it was over to the next calendar. The prosecution declares it has a strong case and will not accept a compromise.

PARIS DROPS ROUND

TO DRUMBO BY ONE GOAL

But Won Last Night's Game by Score of Nine to Six.[Special to The Advertiser.]
Paris, Feb. 10.—Paris was unable to overcome the lead of four goals in the second game of the intermediate round with Drumbo last night, and although they won out by 9 to 6, they were one short on the total. The teams: Paris—Fraser, goal; Peckles, point; Thompson, cover; G. Gill, rover; Meggs, centre; Kempthorne, left; W. Gill, right; Drumbo—Burgess, goal; Little, point; Hall, cover; Wiggins, rover; Avery, centre; Laurie, left; McTaggart, right.

WATERLOO BEAT BERLIN.

Waterloo, Feb. 9.—Waterloo defeated Berlin tonight by a score of 6 goals to 5.

Berlin—Lohman, goal; Schbert, point; Corbett, cover; Edmunds, rover; Dumart, centre; Ford, left; Arson, right.

Attendance—2,200.

CAYUGA WON.

[G. N. W. Service.]
Waterford, Feb. 9.—The hockey game in the Southern Counties League here last night was won by Cayuga by the score of 7 to 1. The score at half time was 4 to 1 in favor of Waterford. Referee Winger, of Hagersville gave satisfaction.

ST. MIQUES BEAT QUEEN'S.

[G. N. W. Service.]
Kingston, Feb. 9.—St. Michael's College, O. H. A. champions, defeated Queen's senior team in an exhibition match tonight by 10 goals to 4; half-time score was 8 to 1. The first half was played in the most exciting manner under O. H. A. rules. During the first half Queens were like a bunch of schoolboys. St. Michael's merely playing with them. Queen's came back strong in the second half, however, and succeeded in holding their own.

AT LISTOWEL.

Listowel (10)—Zinkham, goal; Ainley, point; Price, cover; Thompson, rover; Arnold, cover; Terry, left wing; Schinbain, right wing; McGowan, right wing; Brunsell (2)—Fraser, goal; Gerry, point; Holmes, cover; Ewan, rover; Lower, centre; McMillan, left wing; Leckie, right wing. Referee—J. Bricker, Listowel.

LIVE BASEBALL NEWS AND GOSSIP

Gathered From League Circuits

Clarke Griffith says that outside ball-players will not be tolerated at the joint park of the Reds and Boston Red Sox when the teams go into training this spring. About a hundred major league players will be hanging around the Arkansas resort for a couple of weeks early in the spring.

Pitcher Elmer Steele will be given an early trial by the Boston Red Sox. Steele cost George Stallings a last summer. The big chief bent to stick it out till July 5. He managed to work it out till July 5.

Stanley Robison has the utmost faith in Roger Bresnahan and is counting on the catcher-manager to land the Cardinals in the first division this year. "Give me two more pitchers," declares Rajah, "and I'll be up there among the first four."

That's what they all say.

Manager Fred Clarke will ride easy with his world's champions in spring training. The team will not begin preliminary work with the exception of the battery men, until March 20 in Hot Springs. Only four exhibition games will be played, two in Memphis and two in Chattanooga, April 8 to 12 inclusive.

Philadelphia scribbles give Anne Strunk a chance for one of the outfield positions with the Athletics.

Nick Maddox, the twirler of the Pittsburgh Pirates, is the only pitcher of the world's champions that has ever succeeded in shutting out a team without a hit.

Ed Barrows, manager of the Montreal

Eastern League club, expects big Jim Wiggins to be his leading pitcher this season. Wiggins would never have been turned back to the bushes by Detroit if he had control.

Larry McLean, Cincinnati's humorous catcher, is going into vaudeville next winter. Reddigan playwright is doing up a sketch for Long Larry, and a promoter has promised the best of a best show. He hits over 300. Another good reason why McLean should ride high and carry for the first time in his career is that he will lead the California State League club of San Francisco this year, says he knows nothing on the line-up but native sons.

President Barney, of the Three-I League, whose offices are located in the first division this year. He plans to have the tube and White Sox, four this spring, playing in every city.

Jack O'Connor has wired Murphy that he will be in Chicago by Feb. 15. The Peerless leader wishes to nose around among the American League magnates who will meet at the Windy City at that time.

Brown's agent is going to put his return from Texas this spring. He has won games with several clubs in the wild and woolly. For instance, the Mount City aggregation will appear at Muskogee, Okla., as early as March 26 and 27.
