This year's W. O. B. A. was a success as far as it went, but when it closed yesterday there must have been many, who have the aims of the big association .571 at heart, convinced that if these are to be carried out, changes must be made in the competition, even if the whole nature of it is switched around. The plan to divide Western Ontario into groups and have elimination co tests in these groups with only the play-offs by group champions as the W. O. B. A. proper, seems a feasible one under the circumstances. It has many sup-

The tournament with the number of entries that should be in, is too unwieldly considering present day bowling circumstances. If it were run along the lines of the Ontario Tankard play, this would mean that it could be made sufficiently attractive for all the groups of Western Ontario to send the best they have to compete, and it could be finished in two days of steady bowling. The standard of the W. O. B. A. has always been high, but this would at once put its competitions in the blue ribbon class. The winners of events in a case of this kind would have something of which to be proud—they would have beaten the best bowling talent this neck of the province produced.

The Meusel deal with the Phillies has aroused a storm of comment amongst the club owners, who view the deal as nothing more or less than an attempt on the part of McGraw to buy a National League bunting.

The Pirate fo'castle is filled full of peeved Buccaneers as the latest Giant strategy is discussed. Yesterday the Giants were but eight points behind, and today, if they win, will be ahead. Trades at this stage of the league race should be illegal, but while making it so has been discussed often enough, nothing is ever legislated. It would be rather funny if both New York teams should win their respective flags, and the world series were to be concentrated at the Polo Grounds. At first sight, it shouldn't make the club owners very happy, as a series of this sort would hardly draw the gates which would be drawn if different cities were playing. London Pairs Take
