Weather-Mostly Fair-Showers.

CHURCH, STATE

57TH YEAR. NO.

St. Thomas Convention Refuses To Accede to Anglican Bishop's Request.

STANDS BY PRINCIPLE

Resolution Passed Calls For Religious Teaching Under Church's Auspices.

By WILLIAM SHARMAN,

Thomas, Oct. 20 .- Once more the Baptist convention has declared its principle of "entire separation of church and state," this time to no less a person that His Lordship the Bishop of Algoma.

from the bishop asking that the convention appoint a committee of five to onfer with similar committees from convention Thursday India ceutive of the Sunday school together with a resolution ad-together with a resolution ad-railway labor board and the five union bering Dr. W. T. Graham's heads—Warren S. Stone of the en-ous subjects to serve as a to strike.

importance of the religious in- meeting was abs omes and in our churches. We urge on our churches the necessity of emacing every possible opportunity of ving religious instruction in our public and high schools under the auspices, dat the expense of our churches."

Holding that the United States should to be rightfully included in any group the Russia, Germany and Austriangary, Rev. G. A. Leichliter, pastor.

Mere in Cleveland today meating a strike.

A report of the conference was telegraphed to President Harding at Washington and both the labor leaders and board members seemed inclined to feel that the next step toward alleviating the crisis would be taken there. Several rallroad union men said that "it books as if only the Government itself could prevent a walkout."

Mr. Stone, Mr. Lee and Mr. Carter the Adelaide Street Baptist Church, were in Cleveland today measure was held up until an answer w received.

Can then draw their own conclusions, apply to its debenture demand of $250.

This was the decision of the coming year.

This was the decision of the commission that countils letter informed the council's letter informed the countils letter in e Baptists, challenged a resolution ing to the League of Nations, lating to the League of Nations, declaring its passage would be "highly dangerous and more than likely to find objection in the minds of those who loved the neighboring republic."

In this stand he was sustained by C. S. Moore, retiring president, declaring: "We are dealing with a danclaring: "We are dealing with a dancelaring: "We are dealing with a dancelaring: and serious question and no of the city using gas have to change his gas stove and install pipes to take of the furnes, if natural gas is turned

s and serious question and Turn to Page 11, Column 4,

SINGLE TAX SUBJECT, KIWANIAN ADDRESS

John White, Exponent of System, Speaks at Luncheon.

The Kiwanis Club had another bumper gathering at the Friday noonday luncheon, and the usual varied

Kiwanian Tom Roy explained to several new members, including Bill Benson, Charlie Laur, Howard Crummer and Frank Jones all that "Kiwanis" John White of Chicago, an expone

John White of Chicago, an exponent of the land method of taxation, gave the members a whirtwind 20-minute address on systems of taxation. He declared that the present manner was to tax This meant that the tax wa ot paid by the owner of a factory o not paid by the owner of a factory of business, as the case might be, but passed on to the consumer. The sys-tem, he said, was raising "Cain" throughout the world and did much to stille progress.

"The only way to avoid a tax on business is to tax the land." said Mr. White. "A tremendous overhead cost is being placed on everything under the present system. The taxing of the present system. The taxing of i dustry is the aristocratic method, a the land tax is the democratic was Every time you reduce the takes of

BAPTISTS INSIST FEAR RIFT IN BRITAIN ON IRELAND ON SEPARATION

W. C. T. U. SIDELIGHTS

A CAPABLE woman, a mighty cap-

Toronto, newly-elected president of the Ontario W. C. T. U. All the delegates were of the opinion that Mrs. Pugsley was the proper person for the position,

Mrs. Pugsley thinks before she speaks she talks she says something worth listening to. Several times in the discussions that took place Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Pugsley broke in with the regime of Mrs. Pugsley the W. C. T. U. will continue to make rapid ance work for the past 35 years," Mrs came from my mother, who put her hand over mine and helped me trace good work can be accomplished with Parents Were Abstainers.

termined steadfastness to achieve what we gained the measure of prehibition; we had said that was the goal of our ambition, but the W. C. T. U. has always held a foremost place in every ocial and moral reform, and we put the mphasis on total abstinence, because Bares Work Plans.

we will have enough to keep us busy without going outside of these.

"I feel one of the strongest factors the various charity works of the city were sure the liquor traffic was was the prompt response

There was a mistaken note when

T. U. will continue to but she thinks in a hurry, and when

Union Leaders Defiant as Rail Parley Fails

RUSH PLANS FOR GENERAL STRIKE ON OCTOBER 30

Chiefs Declare Government Only Can Prevent Walkout by New Offer.

ROAD OFFICIALS CONFER

Carriers Redouble Efforts To Combat Threatened Tie-Up of Service.

of education for Ontario had Chicago, Oct. 21.—The United States nat if all the denominations would railway Labor Board has admittedly in this matter he would give failed in its attempt to prevent a rail ble consideration to any advice strike through conferences with heads e representing them all.

Passed On to Executive.

bishop's letter was brought behavior the convention Thursday night by the convention Thursday night by the convention the sunday school.

Remembering Dr. W. T. Graham's heads—warren S. Stone of the en-strong pronouncement on the last Sun-day, the convention passed both docu-ments back to the executive, advising that they be brought before the conwention again today.

The resolution follows: "Whereas the Baptists of Ontario and Quebec have been required to appoint representatives to confer with representative with representative sults except an admission from the

The leaders said the board had not tment of representatives for such a tion. "Its somebody's next move, said lose would contravene our historic the head of one of the larger of the five tist position in regard to the entire organizations. "Whether it is ours, the ration of church and state, there-board's or the roads', I do not know, we respectfully decline to accede the request of the Bishop of Algoma ontained in his letter. We express presenting anything which we could present the product of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the five the head of one of the larger of the five the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of one of the larger of the five the head of the head of the head of the head of the larger of the five the head of the h he request of the Bishop of Algoma contained in his letter. We express firm and abiding conviction of the firm and abiding conviction of the firm and abiding conviction of the religious in-Prepare Strike Plans.

n of the growing youth of our head. We urge upon all our churches loute necessity of making adeloute necessity of making adeprovision for the religious inimmediately except to go right ahead

The $100,000 profits which the hydro a statement of the leaders' position commission has notified the local utinin regard to our cause. The members ties commission is coming to it will not can then draw their own conclusions,

Turn to Page 3, Column 6.

IF NATURAL GAS IS IMPURE,

Commissioner T. W. McFarland suggested that the commission should write the council and state that the money has not as yet been turned over to the commission, and that they do not know when it would be, and further to investigate the council and state that the money has not as yet been turned over to the commission, and that they do not know when it would be, and further to investigate the commission is intention on the matter. Commissioner Philip Pocock suggested also that the notice to the council should question has come up that with the exclusive burning of this natural gas, the council desires, the commission will Chairman W. A. Wilson of the special gas committee has asked Col. Harkness for this information before taking fur-ther steps in the matter. He says that program proved to be as attractive as the gas company suggests that this plan be tried out until the xpiration of th agreement in May next.

If the expert finds that the stoves will have to be changed, it may kill the deal again, as the cost to the individual householder would be too great.

CHURCHES WILL DECIDE STAND ON UNION TODAY

ommittees of the Presbyterian, Metho-Congregationalists will announce that afternoon session of the arm they are ready for immediate steps to-ward organic union. , afternoon session of the day, Novem ber 11.

Dies in Hungary

Former King of Bavaria Held Throne in Stormy Times.

LUDWIG III.

VIENNA, Oct. 21.—The funeral of Ludwig III, former King of Bavaria, whose death occurred Tuesday, was held today from Sarvar Castle in Hungary. Ludwig renounced his throne on Nov. 16, 1918, after a brief and

POWER PROFITS WILL NOT APPLY TO DEBT

sion, discussing the disposition of this unexpected fund, decided to employ it to would be used in the east end, to the Commissioner Philip Pocock suggested exclusion of the artificial gas, but the also that the notice to the council should will an entirely different gas range be appear before them at the next meeting and explain their estimates.

It was stated at the meeting that the hydro commission has started to pay to the city the $100,000 by crediting it with its monthly power bill. The bill this month was for $21,000 and this was receipted and sent to the city. Thus it will take nearly five months to turn over to the city the full amount.

The local commission decided to let the adoption of the 75-cent minimum charge for electric users stand in abov-Turn to Page 4, Column 4.

LLOYD GEORGE DECIDES DEFINITELY ON U. S. TRIP

London, Oct. 21. - Premier Lloyd George has decided definitely, it was tive churches will take when the joint stated today, to leave for Washington, union committee meets tomorrow. It is November 5, on the liner Aquitania, ar-

Lone Cent Piece Goes "Astray," Causes Boy Heap of Trouble of Signal of Organization Declines Gift good movement. On the other hand,

Request Political Leaders To State Positions on Prohibition BANDITS LEAVE

Provincial Executive of W. C. T. U. Sends Telegrams to Premier Meighen and Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King -Budget For Year To Receive Consideration of Delegates at Afternoon Session.

Ottawa, Oct. 21 .- "The president, W.

C. T. U. convention, London: Replying to your wire, just received, I have the pleasure of informing you I have the pleasure of informing you hable woman, is the impression one that the position of the Liberal party gains of Mrs. (Rev.) Will Pugsley of in the control of the liquor traffic was defined in a resolution unanimously adopted at the National Liberal convention held in this city in August, and she undoubtedly is. 1919. The terms of this resolution are ion and prohibition of the sale of inoxicating liquors within the several toxicating liquors within the several arternoon, and rugary for the point, jurisdictions are vested in the provate for the pro nces, this convention is firmly of the Her opinions were listened to with the opinion that when, for the effect of utmost attention and invariably enforcement of restrictions on pro- plauded. It is safe to say that under hibitive legislations by any province, supplemental federal legislation is by strides, both in membership and real the legislature of said provinces deemed work accomplished.

"I have been connected with tempernecessary. Such legislation should on the request of said legislature be enactthe request of said legislature be enact-od by the Federal Parliament.' (Signed) Fugsley said Thursday afternoon. "My first and best temperance impression "W. L. MACKENZIE KING."

Thep rovincial executive of the Ontario Women's Christian Temperance Union this afternoon sent telegrams to

No. Monthly the Christian Temperance able to write. That impression has never left me, and I feel that much never left me, and I feel t the Liberal leader, Hon. W. L. Mackenie King, and Premier Meighen, asking hem to state their position in regard o prohibition and the liquor traffic. This does not mean that we intend ally ourselves with any cause," said not, as an association, take sides with any party. Several times at our meet-ing it has been mentioned that members desire to support candidates pledged to the principles of prohibia statement of the leaders' posit Fire Prevention League ran the report, "And why not? Results of neglect in this sphere are infinitely greater, inasmuch moral and spiritual losses are of m Will Consider Budget.

The department recommended:
"That this subject be discussed and and see that the tobacco law is in a

"That we secure permission to hang posters in every schoolroom where he children can read.
"That we secure permission to hang route, provincial evangelical supposters in every schoolroom where be children can read.
"That we secure permission to hang route, provincial evangelical supposters in every schoolroom where the children can read.
"That we secure permission to hang route, provincial evangelical supposters in every schoolroom where the children can read."

When the children can read are the control of the world's executive, is and That suitable prizes be presented to public and high school pupils for the best essays on 'Why the Student Should Fight the Cigarette.' "That we ask for a temperance day Fention.

They were very cordial to the Cana-

"That a secretary be appointed to dians," said Mrs. Johnston in discussing field, her trip, "I presented a Union Jack to Just At this afternoon's meeting the important matter of the budget for the as I did so, everyone sprang to their feet ear will be considered. It was intro-luced at noon and calls for an expendi- beautiful sight. I spoke of the 3,000 ure of $21,000 apportioned as follows: 5,000 for scientific temperance work, 5,000 for travelers' aid work, $4,000 for missionary work, $4,000 for the Tidings DR. HILL URGES SURVEY and $3,000 for Loyal Temperance League and "Y" work.

In speaking about the budget and the work, it is desired to do, Mrs. May R. Thornley, advisory president, stated that when some time ago the W. C. T. U. women were asked to raise $25,000 for war work they gasped. "Yet," she said; amid applause, "they went to work and instead of raising $25,000, we raised $52,000. It all depends upon the attitude we take in starting a thing of this kind. Facing Big Problems.

resident, declared that the activity of ter results might not be obtained he liquor interests have been keeping three Turn to Page 2, Column 1.

TYPOTHETAE TO COMBAT Welfare Association, the day nursery and the social work of the Salvation and-out advocate of concentration or centralization. Sometimes it was not a

WYOMING BANK

All Traces of Robbers Have Been Lost by Western

DINED BEFORE RAID

Motorist's Mistake in Directing Detectives Prevented Capture.

Thomas Bolton are out on the case and an arrest is expected.

of a probable attempt to leave this branch at Wyoming of $14,000. All trace of the five bandits wh

All trace of the five bandits who robbed the Bank of Toronto branch at Wyoming, Ont., of $13,000 cash, Thursday afternoon, has been lost, and with no definites clues to work on the police of Western Ontario are adopting a course of "watchful waiting."

None of the members of the gang are thought to be Sidney or William Murrell, alleged murderers

"My parents and grand-parents were total abstainers, and I could go back farther than that I think, so you see oming and residents of the village the men were rather short and not 'Spiritual uplift has been the keynote of the present convention, and it has rung true," she replied in answering a question as to what she considered the which is severa, miles distant from outstanding feature of the convention. commission of the robbery. been one of greater uplift and more de-told them that one would being done on the Sarnia gravel road, which was part of the route taken by the fugitives. However, the detour really was north. Had the police re-ceived the correct information they would have probably met the gunmen

Bandits Make Escape You know that we have forty departments in our work, and I expect that With $13,000 in Cash

MRS. Blanche Reid Johnston of To-Watford residents joined in the chase secretary of the world's executive, is and the last report sent to the London another of the prominent figures at the police by the Wyoming officials was to another of the prominent figures at the convention. Mrs. Johnston has just rethe effect that the robbers' car, which turned to Canada from Rochester, N. bas been identified as a McLaughlin Y., where she attended the state conmaster six, thought to have been stolen from R. T. Wright of Thorndale

Turn to Page 4, Column 2. was pressed against his body he dropped to the floor. A. McKay, a client, who was sitting in the office,

OF RELIEF ORGANIZATIONS Believes Better Results Might Come of Centralization. Dr. W. H. Hill, former M. O. H., and be worth while to make a survey of with a view to learning whether bethrough centralization.

Dr. Hill said he had in mind the child welfare branch of the soldiers' aid, the Children's Ald Society, the London Child

Water and Hamiltonian the child player obeyed.

At the same time two others of the They is At the same time two others of the gang rushed to the rear of the bank and treated Vera MacIntosh, ledger-keeper and accountant, in the same way. While one of this pair held her securely his companion rifled the securely his companion rifled the secure of the bank and treated Vera MacIntosh, ledger leaded the stolen car with bags of granulated sugar, pairs of shoes, some 15 shirts and other merchandise valued

Blonde Beauties

COBB SISTERS.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The two daugh

Train Clerks To Shoot, Keep Cash in Safe, Advises Banker

ONDON bank managers have now to shoot and keep the bulk of the cash in the safe," said A pressed similar opinions.

BANDITS ARE BUSY IN BRANT COUNTY

One entered Steal Two Autos and Raid General Store At Burford.

> BRANTFORD, Oct. 20.—Bandits operating in Brant County early to-day got away with two motor cars and ransacked a general store in Bur-ford Village, but they have not been apprehended, nor has any trace of them been found.

A second man walked up to the teller's cage and asked Ernest S. Taylor, the teller, to change a $10 bill. Taylor, not suspecting what was transpiring in his manager's office, turned to make the change.

"Get down on the floor!" ordered the manager of the control of the contro turned to make the change.

"Get down on the floor!" ordered the bandit, at the same time poking a revolver into Taylor's face. The emaps of George Irwine, R. R., No. 1,

SHORTER WORKING WEEK Army.

SHORTER WORKING WEEK Army.

Dr. Hill said that he was not an outand-out advocate of concentration or securely his companion rifled the cash at $500. High County Constable Free drawer in the teller's cage of $4,000 in Kerr and the county police are worklidates' names have been received here as entries in the election campaign. Port Arthur...

MORE NOMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES REPORTED

They are as follows: Lincoln-E. J. Lovelace (Liberal). outh Simcoe-Dr. L. J. Simpson

Zast Peterboro — John Dewart Weyburn, Sask.—John Morrison

(Progressive).

Lethbridge, Alta.—Lincoln II.

Jelliff (Progressive).

Pontiac, Que.—Geo. D. Campbell (Government).

Glengarry-Stormont—J. Wilfred Kennedy (Progressive).

A MOTOR CAR bearing license No

UNIONISTS WILL ASK CENSURE OF BRITISH PREMIER

PRICE, THREE CENTS

Grow Wrathful As Cabinet Continues Negotiations With Dail Eireann.

LLOYD GEORGE TARGET

Members Believe Motion May Fail Owing to Minority of Party.

London, Oct. 21.—Unionist members f Parliament have given notice they vill move what is equivalent to a vote idered early next week, but the date of his address.

to invite the members of parliament and party leaders

a basis upon which might be built a lasting peace in Ireland. Since the last meeting of the conferees adjourned early this week committees charged with ex-amination of definite subjects have been day's session was concluded.

After a session lasting three and a

LIBERALS CONSIDER H. P. HILL. Ottawa, Oct. 21.-The Journal says: It is now definitely established that he name of H. P. Hill, K.C., M. L. A., onvention here Friday evening. THE WEATHER

LOCAL TEMPERATURES. temperatures recorded in London d the 24 hours previous to 8 o'clock last night: Highest, 51; lowest, 34.

The official temperatures for the 13 hours previous to 8 a.m. today were: Highest, 42; lowest, 33

Thursday-8 a.m., 28.99. Today-8 a.m., 29.05 TOMORROW-PARTLY FAIR, SOME SHOWERS.

BAROMETRIC STANDING.

Toronto, Oct. 21-8 a.m. southerly winds; fair and cool toda gales, south and west; partly fair, with some showers uring the 24 hours previous to 8 a.i Stations. Victoria 56

Parry Sound.... 44 Father Point.... 48

Halifax .. Weather Notes. The disturbance which was Huron yesterday morning is tered in Eastern Quebec. Another depression which has traveled very rapidly from the Pacific Coast is situated ver Manitoba. A MOTOR CAR hearing license No. 177-941, skidded on the provincial highway about a mile south of London Thursday night and overturned, landing Provinces, and showers have occurred ocally in Ontario.

BUT FEW CLUES Ontario Police.

BULLETIN. Police received a report late this afternoon from Mr. McCormick at the waterworks at Springbank that two men armed with revolvers held up a young man and robbed him of $10. Detectives Harry Down and

Windsor, Oct. 21.-All ports of exit on this border front are block-ed by police today in anticipation country by the five motor bandits who looted the Bank of Toronto Wrong information from a motoris prevented the London police from coming into contact with the bandi car. The defectives were near Hyde tour south to avoid some repair work

"Have you any special plans for the oming year?" Mrs. Pugsley was asked. "More work and harder work for the [Exclusive Staff Special.]

WYOMING, Ont., Oct. 20.—Five armed motor bandits, one of them that stands behind our work is the masked, robbed the Bank of Toronto press, from whom we have for many branch of $13,000 cash here today, fired years received the utmost courtesy. I a fusillade of shots at the villagers who years received the utmost courtesy. I want to tell you how much we appre- gathered outside the bank soon

Just five minutes before 3 o'clock closing time, this afternoon, four armed men entered the bank, having left their car in charge of a fifth man just from the bank entrance. One entered the office of Manager Harry Lambert, at the front of the building, and ordered him to lie down on the floor. He refused at first, but when the revolver stated that he was going to leave, but the gunmen threatened him, and forced him to the floor, too.

"Give us the combination to the safe."