Discover Coffin in Huron County Contained Liquors Instead of Corpse

GODERICH, June 18.-Not a little mystery cloaks the burial near Dungannon, a week ago Thursday, of a supposed "corpse landed from the steamer "Greyhound," arriving that day from De troit, Michigan, to convey a party of excursionists to Detroit and

With suspicions subsequently aroused, License Inspector Pel low and High Constable Whitesides, it is reported, conducted an impromptu excursion of their own, out to the cemetery, where, with minister and all the customary funeral rites the burial had been

That their curiosity was duly rewarded is the report here today Unearthing the "coffin" the officers, it is related, pried open the lid and encountered a substantial consignment of choice liquors, shipped, it is now supposed, from Windsor. Just whom to suspect as the consignee of the shipment is causing the officers not a little meditation at this moment, however, and the undertaker, minister and others who participated in the burial proceedings, are evincing complete surprise over the discovery.
