Grain Markets WINNIPEG

Canadian Press Despatch Winnipeg, June 23.-Lower Liverpool cables and a reported light demand from the seaboard over the week-end created a weaker tendency around the opening of the wheat market here today. Declines of the wheat market here today. Declines ranging about 1c lower, but an exceptionally good demand came out, and prices reacted strongly, advancing three cents from the low of the day, later easing and finishing 1%c higher for July 1%c higher for October and 1½c up for December. The July future was somewhat stronger than the new crop futures, heavy export buying causing strength in this section. Throughout the session the trade volume was large with the market showing a strong undertone.
