

ELECT JOHN MAGUIRE LONDON LABOR HEAD

Trades Council Show Confidence in President by Reappointing Him.

WILL LAY NEW PLANS

Canadian Party Convention To Meet in London, February 24.

John Maguire, prominent cigar-maker of the city, will again head the London Trades and Labor Council in 1923. At a meeting held in the Labor Temple last night the members gave ample proof of their confidence of the 1922 president by re-electing him.

Other officers elected were: Vice-president, F. Campbell; secretary, F. Burk; treasurer, Mrs. J. Derry; sergeant-at-arms, F. Steele.

In a few words Mr. Maguire expressed his thanks at being re-elected, and assured the delegates that he would continue to do all in his power to carry out the wishes of the council and to lend his aid in every undertaking.

D. McKay, D. Rehder and E. Ingles were chosen as the three trustees representing the London Trades and Labor Council in the Labor Temple. J. Hussey was appointed the representative of the council on the advisory vocational committee of the board of education, and R. H. Hessel and D. Rehder will act for the council on the Western Fair Association.

Mr. Ingles explained to the delegates the nature of the movement on foot to reorganize labor parties in the province and to put organized labor on a better standing than at the present time. He urged those present to co-operate in making labor a stronger factor in the life of the city, and to do all in their power to bring into the fold unorganized employees.

Special meetings to promote this movement will be held in Windsor, Brantford and other cities during the latter part of the month, and competent labor officials of the province will be in the cities at the time to aid in the organization work.

A meeting of all the unions of the local Trades and Labor Council will probably be held during the first week of February to lay plans for the coming of the labor officials to London.

At a session of the London Labor Party to be held in the Labor Temple Friday night preparations will be made for the annual convention of the Canadian Labor Party, which will be held in this city February 24.

TOWN PLANNERS ELECT ALD. DRAKE TO CHAIR

Commission Fixes Meeting For Third Wednesday Each Month.

Ald. Gordon B. Drake was elected chairman of the London Town-Planning Commission at the inaugural meeting at the city hall yesterday afternoon.

Ald. Drake moved that George H. Belton, the only member of the new commission who was not in the 1922 body, be chosen chairman, but Commissioner Belton turned the tables on him, and the other commissioners agreed on choosing the veteran member.

At the suggestion of Mayor Wenige, the commission decided to meet regularly, 4 p.m., the third Wednesday of each month being chosen as the meeting date.

Plans for the sub-division of the Walker and Hall property in the southeast part of the city, and for the sub-division of the Gould property which lies beyond the civic boundary, were subjects for much discussion.

J. W. G. Winnett, solicitor, said the railway board had approved the Walker plan. During his interview with the board concerning the matter, Mr. Winnett stated members of the board had told him London was the only place from which it could "not obtain a fair and candid report," and from which it could "never obtain a fair and candid expression of opinion."

When he applied at the city registry office to register the plan he was balked, for someone from the city hall had visited the office and advised the registrar to delay action in the matter, despite the fact that the solicitor was armed with the decision of the railway board, granting its approval, he said.

Later it was pointed out that whoever gave the registrar instructions to refuse to register the plan, and merely been acting in the city's interest.

Before the commission approves the plan, a meeting of the owner of the property adjacent to the Walker property and the owner of the Walker land, and of Mr. Winnett, who also owns land in the vicinity, must be arranged. The object of the meeting is to make an arrangement whereby the commissioners will be assured that no jogs will be in the subdivision plan. The commissioners argue that they are preparing against the future, and draw attention to the fact that in the newer sections of all cities, there are jogs in the streets.

WHEN DUKE MARRIES INCOME INCREASES

King's Son Will Receive Advance From $50,000 to $115,000 Yearly.

Special to The London Advertiser and Chicago Tribune.—(By Radio).—When the Duke of York marries Lady Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon his income will be £25,000 (roughly $115,000) a year. At present he receives £10,000, which comes from the civil list. Each of the king's sons over 21, except the Prince of Wales, who has a sufficient private income from the Duchy of Cornwall, receives £10,000 until he marries, when the sum automatically increases.

The king's daughters receive £5,000 whether married or single. The Duke of York's wedding date has not yet been fixed, but it is understood it will be discussed at a home party at Sandringham, the king's favorite residence in the country, over the week-end. The Earl and Countess of Strathmore have been invited by the king, and Lady Elizabeth and her fiancé will probably also be there.

WEDS POOR LABORER, FINDS HIM WEALTHY

Catherine O'Brien's Dreams of Romance Vanish When Hubby Confesses.

Special to The London Advertiser.

New York, Jan. 18.—Pity the poor working girl. She marries an equally poor working man and awakes to find him not what he seems, but the wealthy son of a millionaire father. All her romance is destroyed. No longer can she dream of love in a cottage. Henceforth love at Delmonico's and in a Park Avenue apartment is all she can look forward to. The poor working girl was Miss Catherine O'Brien of Saranac Lake, N. Y., until she married the hard-working, unshaven, roughly-clad Gaston Boissonault, Jun. He, the only son of the wealthy inventor of the dictograph and president of the Boissonault Manufacturing Company, went sky-larking at Saranac Lake some weeks ago, deserting his plutocratic home at Hewlett, L. I., where his parents revel in the luxuries that money is heir to.

Young Boissonault got a job one morning after a party and started to work as a common laborer. In this capacity he attracted the attention of Miss O'Brien, resident of the Adirondack resort. His handsome appearance and his gentle manners endeared him to Miss O'Brien, even if he was just a common day laborer. So they were married, and Miss O'Brien, after the first flush of the honeymoon, settled down to be the everyday wife of an everyday workman. But she reckoned without her husband. A few days ago, on their way to a southern resort for their honeymoon young Boissonault confessed to her that he was, in fact, the wealthy and station in life. Picture of shocked but forgiving young bride. Telegrams of congratulation showered in by rich parents. Telegram of shock to O'Brien parents at Saranac Lake. Curtain.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

SMOKES TILL DEATH PARTS HER FROM PIPE

Mrs. R. Smith, 98, Born in Vienna, Ont., Dies in Toledo.

Special to The Advertiser.

Detroit, Jan. 18.—Laying down her pipe which she smoked with pleasure until an hour before her death, Mrs. Rhonda Smith, 98 years old, for more than 15 years a resident of Detroit, died at Toledo yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane Hodge, with whom she has been visiting since Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Hodge said her grandmother's use of tobacco was a habit formed when she was a young woman and "When it was a common practice among homesteaders."

Mrs. Smith was born at Vienna, Ontario, in 1824, and lived there until 15 years ago, when she came to make her home on this side of the line. She was 13 years old at the time of the French-Canadian rebellion of 1837, but could recollect distinctly the stirring days during the campaign, and frequently entertained friends with stories of incidents of that period. She contracted a severe cold ten days ago, but vigorously protested against being kept in bed until last Sunday, when she was unable to walk.

Before her illness Mrs. Smith enjoyed riding in interurban cars and often made the trip between Toledo and Detroit unattended. She had adopted Detroit as her home city, and in a will made several years ago requested that she be buried here.
