Delman Holds 83's To One Hit Up To Sixth Inning.

Knotty Lee's Kitchener-Waterloo 83's showed yesterday when they held the Bakermen to a 4 to 3 verdict that they weren't going to be the doormats for the Mint league this season—not any the Mint league this season—not any part of it.

After Mike Baker's merry men had unloosed a heavy fisilade of blows in the third frame against Earl Brown, who was with Buzz Wetzel's club here for a short time three season's ago, tood for three runs, and a single by stimpson and Miller's double had intreased the ante by one run in the lifth, the supposedly motley collectioned by Knotty sat in the game in the sixth and came through with a three-run outbreak on Joe Delman. Delman until the sixth had held the $3's to one lone five-foot putt by Grme in the sixth rame.

lone five-foot putt by Orme in the first frame.

Delman had one away in the sixth when Orme crashed a terrific drive at Sandquist, which hopped badly and fouled the third sacker below the belt. He got his throw away, but it drew Cross off the bag, and Orme took second, from where he scored on Beatty's short single to left. Beatty took second and single that Leary clubbed out to left. De Loff's choice killed Leary off at second, Brower to Baker, but Beatty scored. Keating smashed a double to center field, on which De Loff tallied. Droege relieved Delman, and Campeau caromed a smash off the Pike's Peak from which the pitchers were doing their stuff. Brown sent a hard frounder at Droege, and Cross took the grounder at Droege, and Cross took the grounder at Droege, and Cross took builet-like peg with one hand for speedy bit of business.

Droege Never Threatened. Droege recovered from his nervous-tess, and although in the seventh walked Murphy, who advanced to third in a passed ball and Orme's long out o right field, he was never in danger to right field, he was never in danger after that.

The Londoners were always in imminent danger of scoring until Lee trotted out a youngster, Mossett, to start the sixth and the Tecs didn't get anything much but eyestrain watching his fast ones go by. He had the most speed uncovered yet and good control, but uniess he shows a change of pace with it, he's liable to see some balls on their way somewhere in a hurry.

Baker and Sandquist both got good drives off his speed, but Stimpson achieved the only real smash. This was another one that hit the mound like a projectile and richocheted into Umpire Legg's short ribs, It was a painful blow, and "Corker" took a seven count, but got up and stayed the mound out.

Cross a Clouter. Cross, Baker and Stimpson featured the heavy hitting of the Londoners. Fross got a double and a triple, and then, in slugger fashion, he wound up triking out twice. Cross first one was a smash to the right field flag, and vas a smash to the right field flag, and f Leary hadry' been playing too much ight, the first sacker's hit would have one for a homer. Brower was on hrough a walk too but Leary grabbed he bounce off Cross' drive, and relayed he ball in so fast that Brower had to will up at third. In the second frame Cernan made third on a home run with two gone, but later was out at he plate, which he attempted to take was a short passed ball.

Directors of the Mint league will meet here at 2 o'clock tomorrow to adjust financial matters for the season. The umpires will meet President Halligan at noon for a talk of rules and to get their assignments.
