Best Results to Policy-

We extend our thanks to the public of London, as well as of Middlesex and Lambton Counties, for the splendid patronage given us during 1900.

While we solicit business for our Company, it has been our aim to look after the best interests of our policyholders, who constitute the Company, for they have trusted us with their business.

We believe we represent the best Company doing business in Canada, and we commend it with confidence and enthusiasm.

To all we wish a prosperous New Year.

A Reception May be Given Him Before He Leaves Windsor.

Sadness was depicted on the features of the members of the congregation of St. Alphonsus' Church, Windsor, Sunday morning, as they slowly left the edifice after high mass. The cause was the official announcement made by Dean Flannery that he would leave the Windsor parish within a few days. His last sermon to his parish-ioners was one of love and humility. He told them that according to canonical law he was not compelled to leave Windsor, but the church wished it, and he would obey the orders of his church. He spoke of the relationship which existed between himself and parishioners in other places where he had ministered to their spiritual wants, and he expressed the wish that nothing but harmony would prevail in Windsor after his departure. He said: and F. Towton
