Mr. W. H. Lucas, the secretary of the Street Fair, which is coming off in Vancouver between August 5 and 10, was seen on his arrival from that city yesterday by a representative of the Colonist with regard to the objects of the Car-

Mr. Lucas said that the fair, while a novel idea in Canada, was no new thing in the United States, where it had existed on a large scale during the past few years. It was a modification of the Old Country fair, with this important change that whereas the old fair took place on the city, the Street Fair brought visitors right into the heart of the town.

Where the fair has been held, Mr. Lucas declared that the business people always want it back. It has held two years in succession in Seattle, and will go back there this year. It was held for the first time last fall in Portland, and will go there again this autumn.

The idea is to attract people to the city by putting up a first class series of amusements, and then to hold the visitors by an exhibit of the natural resources of the country, and a display of the businesses in operation in the city.

In Vancouver the business men are putting up a series of exhibits in which the leading stores and mills of the district and city are represented. Besides this there are exhibits of minerals of lumber, and of the various industries.

Leading members of the Board of Trade, prominent merchants, and even the churches are lending a hand to make the thing a success. The ladies of the congregation are holding a bazaar in the middle of the grounds. An unsectarian society of women are doing much the same thing.

As to the amusements, they are indeed various. There are numerous bands, scenes and model villages from Europe and Mexico, performers from the exhibitions which have been held in Chicago, Paris, New Orleans, Omaha and Buffalo. There are dancers and acrobats, and a variety of other amusements.

The amusement part of the show is run by Mr. George Johnson, who originally came to this country from Syria for the Chicago exposition. He has a show which is a real attraction, and has 145 performers, and which Mr. Lucas states to be worth in the vicinity of $30,000.

THE SLAG LOSS OF COPPER.

Much of the controversy which has been going on in the copper industry of the question of the slag loss in copper. To the following question on the subject Mr. Graves of the Granby smelter, gave this answer:

He said that some of the northern western smelters are losing 3 per cent. of copper in their slag, which equals a copper loss of only $2 a ton. That is an average for the industry. "So they say that the smelters are making a copper loss of only 3 per cent. in slag? Are there any of them that are making a copper loss of 10 per cent. or more? I do not care to say what our slag loss is, for this is nobody's business but our own. I don't mind saying, however, that our slag loss is only 2 per cent."

PROGRESS IN THE BOUNDARY COUNTRY.

It seems unlikely that the labor trouble now agitating the Rossland camp will be put to rest by the settlement of the causes are local and the trouble, it is to be hoped, will be local also. That being so, a satisfactory measure of progress on a very sound and solid basis is being made during this year for the Boundary district. Among the factors aiding this is the very satisfactory news that the company has been able to secure the services of the V. V. & B. branch direct into Phoenix. When it is remembered how close the promoters of this railway are to the completion of the line, and how the company has been able to secure the services of the V. V. & B. branch direct into Phoenix, it is not surprising that the company has been able to secure the services of the V. V. & B. branch direct into Phoenix.

Another satisfactory feature is the successful flotation of the Snowshoe mine in London, which it may be expected will now very shortly be placed on a permanent productive basis.

A third satisfactory feature is the fact that the Granby company is preparing to enlarge its smelter plant at Granby. For as soon as circumstances will justify. With two furnaces we are handling 625 tons of ore a day. We shall have a third furnace in operation by the end of the year, and we will be able to treat still lower grade ore. Of course our ability to mine, smelt and refine this low grade ore will be a great asset to the fine fluxing qualities of the ore itself. We are working all the time to reduce operating costs still further. Now we are planning to put in a new line to scoop the ore from the open quarries into the cars. That will do away with shovellers."

It would be foolish in the face of such facts to take a gloomy view of the future in the Boundary country.

OUTPUT OF GOLD AND COPPER.

The output of gold and copper will of course be materially less this year than it would have been had the strike not occurred at Rossland, if that strike is long continued. Nevertheless it must show a great advance on last year. Rossland will contribute 1,000 tons of total output for last year, and the Boundary is about 75,000 tons ahead of its total output, so that were very gold-copper output for last year, and the Boundary would show a total increase of 100,000 tons, while the Boundary output is much more likely to increase than to diminish.

Danger From Cut Worms Is
Happily Averted By Prompt Action.

Oats and Roots Looking Well—
Hay Abundant—Cattle
Poor.

The following is the latest of the series of interesting letters from Mr. Thomas Cunningham, member of the provincial board of horticulture, to Mr. J. R. Anderson, deputy minister of agriculture:

Vancouver, July 16, 1901.
Dear Mr. Anderson: I went out to Lulu Island yesterday and carefully inspected the cut worm investigation I had last night, and am thankful to report that the danger of serious damage to the crops is averted.

The first farm visited was that of Mr. J. W. Saxsmith, who reported that very few caterpillars had been seen in his immediate neighborhood, and no damage had been done. Mr. Saxsmith is fairly well posted as to the use of proper remedies. I gave him a copy of the insect bulletin, and the next place visited was Charles Saxsmith's, who reported his place exempt, but was very glad to receive a copy of the pest bulletin.

Mr. Young, who is perhaps the largest grower of vegetables and roots in the province, was next visited. Mr. Young reported that very little injury to his extensive crops had been done this year. He had seen a few cut worms and very promptly applied the poisoned bran, with excellent effect. Mr. Young's crops look very promising, and exceptionally free from weeds.

Mr. Garratt, a very prominent and successful farmer, was next visited. Mr. Garratt reported that he had suffered terribly from the cut worms last year, but as soon as he understood the value of the poisoned bran he applied it with a lavish hand, and his crops are now in a very healthy condition.

Mr. Simpson, who is a very prominent and successful farmer, was next visited. Mr. Simpson reported that he had suffered terribly from the cut worms last year, but as soon as he understood the value of the poisoned bran he applied it with a lavish hand, and his crops are now in a very healthy condition.

the Appeal.

Special to the Colonist.
As was expected, the appeal to Victorians on behalf of the children rendered homeless by the destructive fire at Metlakatla, was not made in vain. Hardly had the Colonist office opened yesterday before donations began to come in, and as a result a large quantity of clothing and other necessities were sent north by the steamer Tees last night, and no doubt before the sailing of another steamer the wants of the unfortunate children will be supplied. Besides the cash contributions a number of bundles of clothing were received yesterday. The clothing was sent north on the Tees and the cash paid over to the Bishop of Columbia, who knowing the wants of the children was better able to supply them. The Bishop went north on the Tees and will return by her with a full list of what is required. The goods were taken to the steamer without charge by the Victoria Transfer company, and the P. N. company made no charge for freight. The list of donors follows:

The Misses Drake, clothing; King's Daughters, clothing; Miss Angus, clothing; The Misses Grace, clothing; Mr. Angus, clothing; Mrs. C. H. Lutz, clothing; Mrs. Foster, one parcel; B.
