THE-HERBERT MUDDLE.

A Knotty Problem for Osgoode Hall to Untangle—The Alger Case Against The World Enlarged.

tors to be paid thereout. No other costs. S. H. Blake, Q.C., C. Millar and W. N. Ferguson for plaintiffs; McCarthy, Q.C., and J. Hoskin, Q.C., for infant defendants. C. Moss, Q.C., and H. D. Hulme for defendant executors. H. D. Hulme for defendant executors. C. H. Holman for defendant Watson. Herbert and William A. Campbell, Herbert and Store on the corner of Yonge and Shuter-streets. The plaintiffs say that defendant Herbert commenced business in July, 1884, in Toronton and bought largely on credit until he sold out to his co-defendant, Nicholas Garland, insurance adjuster, and Robert Jenkins, real estate agent; that on 29th January, 1885, Herbert made a fraudulent sale of his stock to his co-defendants at 40 cents on the dollar. They claim the sale and transfer was fraudulent and void under 18 Eliz, and R.S.O., ch. 95, and also R.S.O. 124. They further say that the co-defendants paid certain other creditors of Garland's 60 cents on the dollar. They claim the sale and transfer was fraudulent and took assignments and now claim to be entitled to such claims in full and to deduct their amount from the balance of the purchase money, and plaintiffs ask if transfer of stock is held va id, that co-defendants should only be allowed to set off the amounts actually paid. They also allege that co-defendants have so acted as to bring themselves within 13 Eliz, ch. 5, sec. 3, and are therefore liable to forfeit the whole value of the goods, of which plaintiffs should get one-half.

Defendant Herbert denies positively any fraudulent sale. His co-defendants say they paid $250 cash and balance was to be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can be provided and the provided after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have so can b was to be paid after stock taking; that they have acted in good faith and have paid the balance of such purchase money into court pursuant to an ormoney into court pursuant to an order made upon an injunction motion and have also furnished piaintiffs with an inventory of stock in question, and they have also paid into court the amount over 60 cents on the dollar of the only claim they purchased. They, on their part, allege that the assignment to Campbell, obtained 30th May, 1895, was collusive and, as the sale of stock was then completed: nothing passed to Campbell. The failure to confirm yesterday's curbnews left the wheat market with little support. Long Dec. wheat kept coming on the market all day in small lots. There was not as good a demand for cash wheat. Total sales were about 5000 bush. Exports were 230,000 bush. Thoman raised his estimate of the wheat crop 20,000,000 bush, owing mainly to an increase of over 1,000,000 acres in the area.

BREAKFAST-SUPPER "By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately-flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the justicious use of such articles of det that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nour-lished frame."—Civil Service Gazette, Made simply, with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, by Grocers, labelled thus: By a thorough knowledge of the natural
