appearance 48 hours after death than at the time.

(Re-ex'd by Sol Gen'l).—A blow although not violent enough to cause concussion, might by bursting blood vessels have caused effusion of blood on the brain. W's is convinced; that the death was caused by concussion of the brain or effusion of blood on the brain; the skull is thinner at that spot than at others, and would be more apt to produce concussion without fracture than at others. At the examination of the prisoner there was blood on the sleeves of his shirt and W's thinks on his breast.

(Cross ex'd by Mr. Thomson.)—Saw Pr at the examination, heard the previous evidence, and does not think it would have been unlikely to have got the blood on Pr's lying in bed with his wife.

(Geo. J. Thomson, Esq. then addressed the Jury previous to calling witnesses on the defence and make an eloquent appeal to the Jury and cited a number of cases in favor of the prisoner, showing that the deceased might have come to her death by falling on a sharp instrument.)

EVIDENCE FOR PRISONER.
Dr. R. R. Fletcher, (sworn, ex'd by Geo.
D. Street, Esq.)—Is a medical man, heard the evidence, is of opinion that it might be the case that such an instrument was spoken of, might have caused the brain from the blow without fracture, from the thinness of the skull; it is not a case likely to occur.— W's would distinguish between intoxication and delirium tremens, a person subject to such, would afterwards be aware that something had occurred to him.

Hon. Col. Wye, (sworn, ex'd by Mr. Thomson.)—Knew the Pr some years ago; he was then a steady man, bore a good character as far as W's knew.
Henry O'Neal, (sworn, ex'd by Mr. Thomson.)—Knew the Pr in 1823 in Saint Andrews, lived in W's house 5 years, worked for him, behaved well; never heard of Pr abus-ing his wife during the five years.

W. R. M. Lane, (sworn, ex'd by Mr. Thomson.)—Knew the Pr for 19 years; Pr and wife worked for W's; never knew them to quarrel, never saw anything worse than Pr's drunkenness.

Geo. D. Street, Esq. then addressed the Jury on the defence, in which he urged the doubt which might arise, to be placed to the Prisoner's side and made a most feeling appeal on behalf of the prisoner.

The Sol Gen'l then followed and addressed the Jury on the whole case and replied to and commented on many of the authorities quoted.

The Judge having read the whole evidence made such explanation as the nature of the case required. The Jury after being confined all night brought in a verdict next day of "not guilty."

TO CORRESPONDENTS.
We have received three communications from the pen of P. R. W. which are very roluminous, we should have no objection to publish one each week, provided they were written in a plain manner, but at present the interlinations would render it impossible for the compositor to set them. We should be happy to hear from P. R. W. on the subject.
Anthony Chapple is received, but too late for insertion this week.

Dugald MacDuff's letter "particularly confidential," came to hand. As our correspondent resides some distance back in Saint James, he could not have seen our paper of the 7th inst. or he would have noticed the proceedings, however, we shall give his letter a place.

COMMUNICATIONS.
For the Standard.
Mr. Editor,
Having had occasion during this week to visit Saint Stephen, I took passage in the steamer, and after a couple of hours arrived at that place, but in attempting to land, I got into the mud, not ankle deep but nearly up to my knees in spite of my endeavours to avoid it.
Can you inform me, Sir, what has been done with the "grant from the House of Assembly to build a Steamer Wharf or Landing?" It is really annoying to a person just landing all comfortable and dry, to be soured in mud and water after travelling from Saint John. I should not be the least surprised if the steamers were to cease running to Saint Stephen while there is such a miserable Landing Place for a PASSENGER.

May 11th, 1841.
Mr. Editor,
What is the reason you do not publish the County Accounts, which the presiding Justice at the April Sessions ordered to be published, I saw the reports but wish with many of my friends to see the balance sheet.
Yours,
AN INHABITANT.
