A REAL LIVE TESTIMONIAL
Given to Professor Hamilton, of Hampton, N. S.

Doucet Lake, Digby Co., N. S.

This is to certify that I was afflicted for a long time with chronic diabetes. Tried doctors in the states and home receiving but little benefit.

On arrival of Prof. Hamilton my suffering day and night is past describing I oftentimes locked myself in my room so no one would see my suffering.

I sent for the Professor and can truly say that he saved my life and for the past year am doing my own house work, feeling cured. My husband suffered stomach trouble for 18 years trying doctors with no result.

The Professor cured him two years ago. I highly recommend his treatment to the sick knowing all who try will not try in vain, but receive health which is before great riches.

LUXURY ORGY OF WAR TIMES MEETS SAD END

Baillif Has Over $40,000 of Motor Cars

According to the Borders Cities' Star many citizens are feeling the effects of luxuries purchased during the prosperous years just passed when money and employment were easy to get.

At the present time Mr. St. Louis has over $40,000 worth of automobiles which have been seized for non payment by the purchasers.

The cars are of many sizes and makes. Among the twenty or more cars the baillif has which will be sold at public auction is only one Ford, the rest of the cars being larger and higher priced.

GIRLS! HAVE THICK, SOFT, HEAVY HAIR

A 35 cent bottle of "Danderine" will not only rid your scalp of destructive dandruff and stop falling hair, but immediately your hair seems twice as abundant and so wondrous glossy.

Let "Danderine" save your hair. Have lots long, heavy hair, radiant with life and beauty.

EASY

A little girl timidly asked the drug clerk for a package of pink dye.

"What do you want it for," responded the clerk. "Woolen or cotton goods?"

"Neither," said the child. "It's for my mother's stomach. The doctor said she'd have to diet, and she wants it a pretty color."

THE POETS' CORNER

PLEASE PASS THE APPLES

When every pool in Eden was a mirror That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed She went undraped without a single fear or Thought that she had need to be ashamed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple That she became inclined to be a prude And found that evermore she'd have to grapple.

With the much debated problem of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention, Her time, and all her money, to her clothes. And that was the beginning of Conventioneering. And Modesty, as well, I do suppose.

Reacting came about in fashions recent Now girls conceal so little from the men, It would seem that in the name of all that's decent, Some one ought to pass the apples round again.

AN OLD TIME VALENTINE

It is somewhat dimmed and faded with the passing of the years, It is quaint and out of fashion, with its rhymes of "hopes and fears".

It is edged with paper laces, tied with ribbons pink and blue, With a wreath of dainty roses, and some bright eyed pansies, too.

Cupid, with his bow and arrows, in the place of honor stands, With a little heart shaped missive, held within his tiny hands;

Just a simple little message, formed in letters old and queer, With a lover's knot above it—just these words, "I love you, dear!"

Yes, 'tis out of date and faded, it is quaint and queer and old, Paper lace is out of fashion—so are lovers' knots of gold.

Let them change the form and pattern, turn and alter as they will— But there's one device, I notice, that is quite the fashion still—

Good St. Valentine retains it for his use from year to year, Just the same old fashioned message—just the words, "I love you, dear!"

THE STATESMAN

The statesman throws his shoulders back and straightens out his tie, And says "My friends, unless it rains the weather will be dry."

And when this thought into our brains has percolated through, We common people nod our heads and clearly cry, "How true!"

The statesman blows his massive nose and clears his august throat, And says, "The ship will never sink so long as it's afloat."

Whereat we roll our solemn eyes, applaud with main and might, And slap each other on the back, the while we say, "He's right."

The statesman waxes stern and warm, his drone becomes a roar, He yells "I say to you, my friends, that two and two make four!"

And thereupon our doubts dissolve, our fears are put to rout, And we agree that here's a man who knows who he's about.

VERSES WITH A MORAL

Mary had a little cold That started in her head, And everywhere that Mary went That cold was sure to spread.

It followed her to school one day, THERE WASN'T ANY RULE; It made the children cough and sneeze To have that cough at school.

The teacher tried to drive it out, She tried hard, but kerchoo! It didn't do a bit of good, For teacher caught it, too.

ST. CROIX COVE

Mrs. Naomi Banks is spending a fortnight with friends in Bridgetown. Quite a number of the residents enjoyed the pie social held at Port Lorne Thursday night.

Mr. Percy Anderson, Port Lorne, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall.

The young folks of this place spent a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Hill, Port Lorne, Jan 31st.

Misses Leta and Susie Poole and Alice Beardsley spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lansdale Hall, Beaconsfield.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Peasey Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered with irregular menstruation, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please."—Mrs. J. F. PEASEY, 387 King St., Toronto, Ontario.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Peasey did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health.

THE man or woman behind the counter is in constant danger of contracting colds.

An overheated store, and the drafts from the continually opening doors—that's what causes it.

SHARP'S BALSAM of Horchound and Anise Seed

A winter health preserver for indoor workers—is the most reliable remedy for all such conditions.

It almost instantly remedies incipient colds, and affords quick and grateful relief in more chronic cases, finally completely correcting the condition.

The popular cold remedy for 70 years. At all drug and general stores, 25c. The Canadian Drug Co., Limited, ST. JOHN, N. B.

A Quick Relief for Headache

A headache is frequently caused by badly digested food; the gases and acids resulting therefrom are absorbed by the blood which in turn irritates the nerves and causes painful symptoms called headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, etc. 15 to 30 drops of Mother Seign's Syrup will correct faulty digestion and afford relief.
