Is a HOME COMPANY.

Making all its investments in CANADA, thus benefitting our own people and helping to build up our national resources, instead of being a drain upon them, as in the case of Foreign Companies.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE
CLERGYMAN'S SPECIAL CLASS,

Prepared for the special benefit of MINISTERS. The following extract from the Minutes of the London Conference (page 88) will be of interest :—

“The Committee appointed by the last Conference to consider the plan of Mutual Benefit, promoted by certain young men of this Conference, beg to report that they have heard the proposal of a scheme of Assurance in connection with the Confederation Life Association, and would express their judgment that this measure offers advantages of security and cheapness that commend it to the most favourable consideration of such members of this Conference as desire Life Assurance.”

For Security and Profit results this Association is not surpassed by any other Company doing business in the country.
