THE FARMER'S LITTLE SON'S GARDEN

A little garden I have got; It is a small, but pretty plot,
I had it from papa,
And he has given me seeds to sow,
And roots of flowers that soon will blow, And they will yield me-that I know, A posy for mama.

I love to dig with my small spade, And weed the beds that I have made, And in hot weather, I Must water all the roots around, Or else my flowers will soon be found, All drooming to the thirsty ground, And very soon would die.

My Heavenly Father loves to see, His children prize the gardens. He Made all for our delight, The fairest garden e'er was seen,
Of sweetest flowers and purest green,
And shady trees o'er all to lean,
Was Eden, heavenly bright.

I'm told the good may often meet Within the garden's still retreat, Our God, although unseen; I'm told that love still brings Him nigh, And though a little cudd am I, Oh, make me good, that I may fly On Thy kind arms to lean!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. A CRIPPLE PERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

To Professor Holloway,
Dean Sin—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable O attent and Pills, which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About tenyears ago. Mr. W. Cummus, of Saltiney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries, he had the best mouncal advice at the time, and was attended an inmane of different infirmaries yet he given worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer sented in his hip, which so completely cripples him, that he could not more without crutches for nearly ten years, revenly he began to use your Omment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest case, and with renewed health and vigour.

To Professor Holloway.

Sin—Some time since, one of my children was inflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several contract Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At high I tried your Omement and Phis, and without exaggeration, the effect was intraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the cruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously just a cannot from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines she would have been saved wiso. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.
Copy of a letter from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on Tyne, dated September 20th, 1812.

To Professon Hollowar.

To Professor Hollowar,

Drar Sir.—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibbon, of 31 calley Street, in this town, to month you that for a consequently period she had been a sufferer from debility, and seneral ill health, accompanied with a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this he was terribly afflicted with alterated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally integrable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pilis and Omment, and she states, that in a wonderfully short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to wake about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extragrdinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS-AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LLG-Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemist

Bath.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY,

To Professor Holloway,

Dran Sin,—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medic nes in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Protion, about five miles from this City. She habulecrated wounds in her leg for many years, and letterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years. age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutte affection in the lace, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully
