BALM:

A few consolatory Sonnets, by the Author of "Proverbial Philosophy"

PATIENCE yet one little hour. - Fate, unloved, uncourted flower. Seeing not the sun. Patience.—heart of depth and duty. Yearning for the smiles of beauty. Never catching one.

PATIENCE.—martyr following faintly. Gentle nun, serene and saintly. Kneeling in the dust: O not vain thy long-enduring! Still with meekest might securing Triumph to thy trust!

Hashing every matter'd murmur. Tranquil fortitude the frowner. Gladeth thee with strength While no treason near her lurking. Patience, in her perfect working, Shall be Queen at length.

And behold! the pious doting Is a glorious crown preparing For thine own sweet brow. Precious pearls of softest lustre Shall with brightest jewels cluster Where the thorns are now!

Faith and Patience!—sister, brother,— Lean in love on one another, Calm for good or ill! Comforted by surely knowing That the Ruler is bestowing Strength in sitting still!

O ye virgin spirits wasting, O ye hearts of thousands, hasting Darkly to decay Through the blight of disappointment, Tenderly, with precious ointment Lull those cares away!

Tenderly, with wise beguiling Court sweet Patience for her smilings On that ruin drear Soon with other sister graces, Shall she make our hearts and faces Laugh away their fear

Soft contentment, bright-eyed Duty, Faith in his archangel beauty, Joy, and Love sublime, Follow.—Patience, where the finger Gently beckons Hops to linger On the wrecks of time.

FRIEND OF THE CANADIAN!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ASTHMA!

OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS OF AGE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Weston (Book Store.) Toronto, dated the 9th October, 1854.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir,—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood, it was with agony to see her suffer and hear her cough. I have often declared that I would give all I possessed to have cured her but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose. About three months ago, I thought perhaps your Pills might benefit her, at all events I resolved to give them a trial, which I did, the result was marvellous, by slow degrees my mother became better, and after persevering with your remedies for nine weeks, she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health, although seventy five years old. I remain, Sir, your obliged.

(Signed) THOMAS WESTON.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY!

AFTER HAVING TAPPED THREE TIMES

Copy of a Letter from Anthony Smith, Esq., Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated the 25th August, 1854.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint, I was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and with no more strength in me than a child just born. It was then that I thought of trying your Pills, and immediately sent for a quantity and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health. I am, Sir, yours sincerely,

(Signed) ANTHONY SMITH.

ASTONISHING CURE OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND LIVER COMPLAINT!

Copy of a Letter from William Reeves, of Charlotte-Town, Prince Edward's Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY. Sir,—I am happy to say that your Pills have restored me to health after suffering for nine years from the most intense general debility and languor, my liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time tried many medicines, but they were of no good to me until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which and following the printed directions for seven weeks I was cured, after every other means failed, to the astonishment of my neighbours, acquaintances, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

(Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
