

Fiji Island Mission.

From the paper read before the Conference at London by Rev. John Calvert (see pages 656-60 of this Review) we gather the latest facts respecting this marvelous mission.

"With only 9 white missionaries, we have 3,505 native preachers; 56 ordained, who take full part in the work of the ministry with the English missionary, 47 catechists, 983 head preachers, with 1,919 ordinary local or lay preachers. There are 1,268 chapels and other preaching places; 28 English church members, 27,097 full native church members. These are well cared for by 3,480 devoted class-leaders. There are 40,718 scholars in our 1,735 day and Sunday-schools, taught by 2,526 teachers; and 101,150 attendants on public worship. The jubilee of the mission was lately held. Fifty years previously there was not a Christian in all Fiji; then not an avowed heathen left. Cannibalism has, for some years past, been wholly extinct, and other immemorial customs of horrible cruelty and barbarism have disappeared."

Basel Mission Society, Basel, Switzerland.

THE latest and most authentic statistics of this interesting mission are furnished by Rev. H. W. Hulbert in the two valuable papers given by him on the Basel Mission in our October and November issues. We give the summary as follows:

To-day the Basel Society has four fields of labor, East India, China, Gold Coast, and Cameroons and Victoria in West Africa; 44 stations, 79 ordained male European laborers, 31 day European lay workers, 35 female European laborers, 577 native workers, 19,988 adherents, 9,497 communicants, 207 schools and 7,486 scholars. The annual income of this society is £36,000, of which the native converts contribute £778.

McAll Mission, France.

FROM the admirable paper of Mr. Saillens, the associate of Mr. McAll, given in this number of THE MIS-

SIONARY REVIEW OF THE WORLD, we give the latest statistics of this marvelous mission:

The McAll Mission numbers at present 25 stations, or mission halls, in Paris, 11 in the immediate suburbs, and 70 in the provinces, making a total of 116. Some of these are opened every night, but the greater number are used only on Sunday, and two or three times during the week. Adults and children's meetings, Bible classes and mothers' meetings, dispensaries, young men's associations, all these and other methods of work are carried on.

The aggregate attendance during last year in the 17,000 meetings which have been held, has been 1,114,233. The number of people who are under gospel influence through these mission halls, who attend more or less regularly, and may be said to be favorably disposed—people who, formerly, were freethinkers and indifferent to their religious interests—can be safely estimated at 50,000.

Hebrew Christian Work in New York. REPORT to Jan. 1, 1888:

This work is under control of Rev. Jacob Freshman, a converted Israelite and Rabbi's son. The Center is 17 St. Mark's Place, New York. Preaching in German and English every Saturday afternoon, English services Sundays and Fridays. No statement of finances is appended. The property has been bought and paid for and is without debt, save the $10,000 first mortgage. It is essentially a faith work, Mr. and Mrs. Freshman having no salary. In our judgment it inspires confidence to print a full account of all receipts and expenditures, and we commend this suggestion to friend Freshman.
