

PARAGRAPHC.

MY TOOTHACHE

Is an exclamation heard every hour in the day. Toothache is the most common ailment of young and old, and in the aggregate inflicts more suffering than perhaps any other single complaint.

Life is made up not of great sacrifice or duties, but of little things, of which smiles and kindness and small obligations, given habitually are what win and preserve the heart and secure the comfort.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows.

The shortest and surest way to live with honor in the world is to be in reality what we would appear to be; and, if we observe, we shall find that all human virtues increase and strengthen themselves by the practice and experience of them.

C. C. Richards & Co.,

Gents.—I am now sixty years old, have been quite bald, and have worn a wig for over forty years. About a year ago I heard of the wonderful hair-producing qualities of Minard's Liniment.

Mrs. Chas. Anderson Stanley, P. E. I., Aug. 1883.

There appears to exist a greater desire to live long than to live well. Measure a man's desires, he cannot live long enough; measure by his good deeds, and he has not lived long enough; measure by his evil deeds, and he has lived too long.

Economy is itself a great name. Then keep Minard's Liniment in the house and you will keep the doctor out. Only costs 25 cents a bottle.

Men have bodies as well as souls. Sometimes a loaf of bread and a bar of soap will help the one and save the other.

"One of the most perfect instruments for sound instruction concerning the Church that has been offered to Churchmen. The whole temper of the book is courteous, kindly and humble. This book ought to be in the hands of every Churchman. Of all books upon this important subject it is the most readable. It is popular and attractive in style, in the best sense. We commend it most heartily to every Clergyman for personal help and parochial use. We would, if we could, place a copy in the hands of every member of the English-speaking race. And we are assured, that once begun, it will be read with interest from preface to conclusion. No better text book could be found for a class of adults, who desire to give a reason for their faith, and be Churchmen in reality.—Church Record.
