We would call the attention of our Country readers to the DATE on the LABEL attached to their papers, which shows the time subscription is paid to. Prompt remittances requested.

THE RAVINGS OF A BIGOT.

The people have an undoubted right to analyze the conduct and even criticize the actions of public men; but there is a point at which privilege becomes a license and a limit beyond which it is unjustifiable to go.

Today the columns of our daily press, from end to end of Canada, are filled with reports of the most heated and most personally malicious attacks that, perhaps, ever fell from the lips of a sane man in the path of a Christian minister.

There is the secret. Sir John Thompson had been a Methodist; he became a Catholic; Dr. Douglas is an emotional Methodist; Sir John's character and life are beyond reproach; therefore, jealousy, veation, disappointment, all combine, and Dr. Douglas pours out nonsense by the yard and vituperation without measure. Were Sir John Thompson an ordinary man, one of the common herd, a person with no individuality, little notice would be taken of his conversion from the Methodist belief to the Catholic Faith.

When Dr. Douglas speaks of "Old Romanism" and "the ultra-ultra of ultramontane Jesuitism," he merely strings words together and makes nonsense with them. He should have discerned enough not to make such a display of crass ignorance in the capricious attitudes that he has by heart.

It was told in coming to the country that there was an avowed bigoted going forward and a refusal to sustain any man that would support the Thompson dynasty. Should it come, it is true, for the sake of the traditions of the past, but this is a doubtful matter.

A MOLOKAI HERO.

The Rev. L. L. Courant of Molokai, the most arduous of his has been sacrificed to the cause of the unfortunate people of that island in Detroit.

CATHOLIC OBJECTIONS TO ORANGEISM.

Were the Orange order merely a benevolent institution, composed of persons differing from us in belief, we would have no objections to its existence. Our friend Mr. Norman Murray, who is a Highland Scotchman and an Orangeman, (strange contradiction), would like to know why Catholics object to that Society.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Tomorrow the Church celebrates the Feast of Corpus Christi, but the outdoor oration, known as the Eucharistic prayer, will not take place until next Sunday.

TEACHING ENGLISH.

Two months ago we were told that the lack of an opportunity to learn English in the East and the West was a great evil.

altars than that he should have clothed His Divinity with a human body and have subjected Himself, for a time, to the regulations and laws of our nature.

SPECIAL INDULGENCES.

We have returned very often to the contemplation of the singularly beautiful St. Patrick's Cemetery in the Parish of St. James.

THE TRUE WITNESS NOT ALONE.

It has been stated, on the one hand, that the last and best of the Home Rule party is the Liberal party.

AFRICAN MISSIONS.

A paper published in the "The German Colonies" has just given particulars of the establishment of a mission in the island of Madagascar.

sufficiently interested in the question has only to go down to-morrow to these schools, and he will find that we told the truth, and moreover that, through fear of offending, where no offence was intended, we did not tell all the truth.

MR. CURRAN'S SPEECH.

We publish to-day, in full, the splendid speech delivered by Mr. J. J. Curran, Member for Montreal Centre, upon the question of Home Rule, brought before the House last week.

THE FREEMAN'S ANGRY.

We have, it appears, attended the Canadian Freeman occasion for a two column and a half editorial against the True Witness.

DOMINION DAY PILGRIMAGE.

Rev. Father Grubb, C.S.B., has organized a pilgrimage to St. Anne de Beaupre. There is no excuse this year for the Montreal Irish Catholics not visiting the famous shrine on the lower St. Lawrence.

GRAND REQUDEM.

On Monday last, at 7 a.m. in the Cathedral chapel, a solemn annual requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the late Mgr. Bourget, second Bishop of Montreal.

can be formed of the great necessity there is for missionaries properly trained and competent to do their work in that distant land. Thompson, in his admirable work, "A Trip through Masailand," gives wonderful descriptions of the efforts made by Catholic missionaries to carry the light of Faith into that vast region.

There is no excuse this year for the Montreal Irish Catholics not visiting the famous shrine on the lower St. Lawrence. Every accommodation possible is being furnished and the good pastor of St. Ann's of Montreal is doing all in his power to facilitate his parishioners in honoring the good St. Anne de Beaupre.

Our Kingston contemporary is skilled in a certain style of argument in which we have not been schooled; it therefore has us at a disadvantage. It says, "The young man's mind must be wandering? perhaps it is, but there is method in his madness."
