

9. FOSTER.—1823. Lawrence Foster, drowned, father of S. K. Foster.
10. BECK.—1820. Catherine Beck, relict of the late Mr. Joseph Beck, after a short illness, funeral from the house of Mrs. John Melick, Market Square, on Sunday afternoon immediately after Divine service.
11. STOCKTON.—1879. Fanny M. Stockton wife of Capt. S. H. Stockton and daughter of Wm. Causey, died, age 34.
12. TREPAGER.—1817. Mr. Henry Trepager, in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Trepager was among the first settlers of this place.
13. NISBET.—1841. Wm. Nisbet, a native of Dunse, Berwickshire in Scotland, and for many years a most worthy and esteemed inhabitant of this city. For upwards of forty years he had been a member of the Wesleyan Methodist Society, and had with great credit to himself and usefulness in the church, sustained the office of class leader, local preacher and trustee, besides that of Supt. of the Germain Street Sunday school, died in the 69th year of his age—his end was eminently that of the righteous.
14. CHILLAS.—1823. Christiann Chillas, wife of Robert Chillas, died, age 73, came 1783.
15. PBAMART.—1820. Mrs. Mary Peamart died, aged 81 years, relict of the late Francis Peamart of this city.
16. GORDON.—1812. Wm. Gordon, Esq., A. D. Commissary general for the garrison of Fredericton, died, age 63 years. For some time past Mr. Gardiner has been sinking under accumulated pressure of sickness and trouble, but there are many respectable members of this community who with lively emotions of friendship will recollect his kindness, hospitality and other valuable qualities, and will lament his loss.
17. HARDING.—1810. John Harding, died, age 24.
18. FRENCH.—1820. James French, Esq., died at his house on the Nashwaak, in the 75th year of his age, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of York, and a Captain upon the half pay of the first Battalion of DeLancey's Brigade. This gentleman after having made many sacrifices in his native country, readily joined the standard of his rightful king in the late rebellion of the British Colonies in North America, and at the Peace with many others similarly situated came to this Province, and set down to cultivate the arts of peace. His house was the seat of hospitality - his urbanity, his charity, and his benevolence endeared him to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and it might be questioned, whether his friends or the poor, most effectively felt the good effects of his open hand and liberal heart. As a Magistrate he discharged his duties with cheerfulness, as a practical farmer and a good neighbor he was excelled by few, his