Section 27

The Government of Canada shall permit and facilitate the entry into Canada of:

- (a) representatives of the press, or of radio, film or other information agencies who have been accredited to the Organization after consultation with the Government of Canada;
- (b) representatives of the United Nations or of Specialized Agencies required to attend the headquarters premises on official business.

ARTICLE VI

Abuse of Privileges

Section 28

If the Government of Canada considers that there has been an abuse of privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement, consultations will be held between the Government of Canada and the Organization to determine whether any such abuse has occurred and, if so, to attempt to ensure that no repetition occurs. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the Government of Canada and to the Organization, the question as to whether an abuse of privilege or immunity has occurred shall be submitted to the International Court of Justice. If the International Court of Justice finds that such an abuse has occurred, the Government of Canada shall have the right, after notification to the Organization, to withhold the benefits of the privileges or immunity so abused.

Section 29

The Government of Canada may not require Representatives of Members or officials to leave the country on account of any activities performed by them in their official capacity. In the case, however, of the abuse of privileges of residence by these persons resulting from activities outside their official functions, the Government of Canada may require any such person to leave provided that:

- (a) Representatives of Members and Senior Officials shall not be required to leave the country otherwise than in accordance with the diplomatic procedure applicable to diplomatic envoys accredited to Canada;
- (b) other officials shall not be required to leave the country other than with the approval of the Secretary of State for External Affairs after consultation with the Secretary-General of the Organization; and, if expulsion proceedings are taken, the Secretary-General of the Organization shall have the right to appear in any such proceedings on behalf of the person against whom they are instituted.

ARTICLE VII

Section 30

The Organization shall make adequate provision for appropriate modes of settlement of:

- (a) disputes arising out of contracts or other disputes of private character to which the Organization is a party;
- (b) disputes involving any official of the Organization if his immunity has not been waived in accordance with Section 25.
