

- (d) in the case of a benefit payable under the legislation of Canada, the person concerned has completed creditable periods under that legislation which total at least one year.

Article IX

Periods under the Legislation of a Third State

If a person is not entitled to a benefit on the basis of the periods creditable under the legislation of the Parties, totalized as provided in Article VIII, entitlement to that benefit shall be determined by totalizing these periods and periods creditable under the legislation of a third State with which both Parties are bound by separate social security instruments which provide for totalizing periods.

CHAPTER 2

BENEFITS UNDER THE LEGISLATION OF CANADA

Article X

Benefits under the Old Age Security Act

1. If a person is entitled to a pension or a spouse's allowance solely through the application of the totalizing provisions of Chapter 1 of this Part, the competent institution of Canada shall calculate the amount of the pension or spouse's allowance payable to that person in conformity with the provisions of the Old Age Security Act governing the payment of a partial pension or a spouse's allowance, exclusively on the basis of the periods of residence which may be considered under that Act.
2. Paragraph 1 shall also apply to a person who is entitled to a pension in Canada but who has not resided in Canada for the minimum period required by the Old Age Security Act for entitlement to a pension outside Canada.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement,
 - (a) the competent institution of Canada shall not be liable to pay an Old Age Security pension outside Canada unless the periods of residence, when totalized as provided in Chapter 1 of this Part, are at least equal to the minimum period of residence in Canada required by the Old Age Security Act for entitlement to a pension outside Canada; and
