OTTAWA - CANADA

FOR RELEASE IN AFTERNOON PAPERS
OF FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1955.

No. 54

Her Royal Highness, the Princess Royal, will arrive in Quebec City by the Empress of France on Thursday, September 29. She will be accompanied by Miss Gwynedd Lloyd, Lady in Waiting, and Major Geoffrey Eastwood, Gentleman in Attendance.

During the stay in Canada, Her Royal Highness will be the guest of His Excellency the Governor General of Canada, the Right Honourable Vincent Massey, C.H., at the Citadel in Quebec City from the day of her arrival until Sunday, October 2, and at Government House in Ottawa from the following Sunday, October 9, until Wednesday, October 12.

Her Royal Highness has been invited by the Royal Canadian Corps of Signals to visit Kingston and participate in activities of the Corps during the period Thursday, October 6, to Sunday, October 9. She has been Colonel-in-Chief of the Corps since 1940. As she is also the Colonel-in-Chief of the Canadian Scottish Regiment, Her Royal Highness will be in Victoria as their guest from Saturday, October 15, until Thursday, October 20.

On the way to the Kingston and Victoria appointments Her Royal Highness will spend from Sunday, October 2, until Thursday, October 6, in Montreal; Wednesday, October 12, until Friday, October 14, in Toronto and Niagara Falls; and will make a visit of three days to Vancouver, from Friday, October 21, until Sunday, October 23. The Princess Royal will spend a night at Winnipeg on Friday, October 14, when flying from Toronto to Victoria. Her Royal Highness will fly from Vancouver to Montreal to sail on the Empress of France for the United Kingdom on Tuesday, October 25.
