

...2...

Every Canadian joins me in thanking them all. But in saying that only, I would fail to express the gratitude we feel for all the individuals and organizations contributing to helping and comforting those who grieve. I could not mention or know them all, from the volunteers at the Hospital to the Irish Tourist Board, but the deep appreciation of Canadians goes out to them all.

Yours sincerely,

Joe Clark"