

Japan is Canada's second most important trade partner accounting for 24 percent of our non-USA exports. In 1988, Canadian exports to Japan increased by 23 percent to $8.7 billion and imports increased more modestly to $9.2 billion, resulting in a decreased trade deficit of $575 million.

For more information, contact:

Abbie Dann or Suzanne Szukits
Department of External Affairs
(613) 995-1874