BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Starr: Mr. Speaker, I should like to ask the government house leader in what order the supplementary estimates will be considered tomorrow.

Mr. MacEachen: The supplementary estimates will be considered in the order listed, beginning with the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs, followed by the Department of Defence Production and the Department of Industry under the same minister, and then the estimates of the Department of Energy, Mines and Resources. I should like to point out that if by the end of the afternoon the consideration of the estimates of the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs is not completed, I will call the estimates of the departments which I have already mentioned.

● (10:00 p.m.)

Mr. Starr: I should like to ask a question so that we may know tomorrow when we consider the estimates of the Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs whether, in view of the fact a board will be set up to review costs and prices, it is the intention of the minister to introduce an amendment to reduce some of these estimates?

Mr. Knowles: Mr. Speaker, I do not want to interfere with the answer to that question, but I have one I should like to ask as well.

[Mr. Grégoire.]

Could we be informed tomorrow, before we begin consideration of the estimates of the Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs, whether we will be proceeding this week with Bill No. C-190?

Mr. MacEachen: As suggested earlier today, I propose to have a meeting with the house leaders tomorrow morning. Possibly illumination on that point will issue from that meeting.
