

know from your husband, how I have done all I could, to see he had done for him all the little services in my power. I pray you would salute Miss Miriam in my name, and tell her I wish her a pretty little husband at her return, worthy her merit. Embrace also your two little misses; my daughter, Mary Ann, assures you of her respects, and salutes kindly Miss Miriam and the two little misses. I beg you to enquire after my son, who I believe is taken, because he is so long before he comes home. His name is James Bisson, son of James Bisson and Hubelle Badeau. I pray you again, that in case you find him, to do him what service you can, and to take care of him. I shall be everlastingly obliged to you for it. I conclude by assuring you, that I shall all my life be, madam, one of your greatest friends, and your humble servant,

THE WIDOW BISSON.

Our neighbor, Miss Mary Ann Deforme, assures you of her respects, and salutes Miss Miriam and the two little misses. Miss Sinette and Tenesa Voyer assure you of their respects, and also Miss Mary Ann and the two misses. Adieu, Madam Johnson. I wish you health and much joy upon Mr. Johnson's return, who is to depart from hence immediately.
