LIST OF CLAIMANTS WHO ARE ENTITLED
THE FIRST RATE OF ALLOWANCE.

Names of claimants.	Quantity of land to which they are respectively entitled.	REMARKS.
Jonathan Eddy.	One thousand acres.	He is particularly mentioned in one of the resolutions of Congress. His losses and services were equal to S. Harding's, but col. Eddy, has already received some compensation from Massachusetts.
Col. James Livingston.	One thousand acres.	His services and losses taken together would entitle him to two thousand acres; but col. Livingston has already received 1,000 acres from New-York,
Parker Clark.	One thousand acres.
John Allan.	One thousand acres,
The heirs of John Dodge.	One thousand acres.
