Some Buyers Got Bargains and Others Didn't at Sale in Police Court

IN ROLE OF AUCTIONEER

Inspector Kennedy Displayed Skill in Disposing of Unclaimed Articles.

The semi-annual police sale of unclaimed articles was held Saturday afternoon in the police court. Inspector Kennedy of the detective department was the auctioneer and was assisted by members of his staff. The not an auctioneer by calling the inspector by skillful judgment boosted his stock to good purpose and generally received the values of the articles.

The collection of articles, which was the result of a six months' saving, consisted of nearly everything that was portable under the sun. There were baby carriages, pitchforks, crowbars, jewelry of all description, old and new boots, and many shanks and in fact everything that goes to make up an up-to-date departmental store.
 Most of the afternoon was taken up with knives, of which there were thousands. They were wrapped in bundles of six and were eagerly snap-up by the buyers at an average of 25c a bundle. There were some rare bargains. One old-fashioned gold brooch set with corals went for $60, while a pair of unique gold earrings, tipped with coral and centred with diamond chips, was boosted from 10c to $25.

The second-hand dealers were on the spot and started many a lively contest for second-hand iron goods, auto skid chains and coils of wire, which seemed to run into miles. One foreigner bid $10 for a pair of chains and when it was knocked down to him at that price refused to take it. He claimed that it was only worth 60c, and it was only after a heated argument that he was prevailed upon to fulfill his bargain.

William R. Travers, ex-president of the Farmers' Bank, was an interested spectator of the sale.

SERMON TO STUDENTS

Prof. W. Morgan Preaches to University Audience at Convocation Hall.

Symbolizing the bounty of God and teaching a lesson of human generosity, the story of the widow's barrel of meal and the cruse of oil, Prof. W. Morgan of Queen's University preached a sermon to a university audience at Convocation Hall yesterday morning, in which he emphasized God's bounty and the fact that the spiritual needs as the physical needs of humanity are always looked after. The story about the barrel of meal and the cruse of oil was not cited as a historical fact, but as a witness of the impression which Elijah's life made upon his countrymen.

No figure of Hebrew history except Moses and David ever stamped itself as deeply on the people as did Elijah.
 If the stories about him were touched with the marvelous it was because the man himself was of heroic mold, said Prof. Morgan.

The lesson which was drawn from the story was the mechanicalness of the divine provision and resources. In a literal sense, the speaker declared, that people never reached the bottom of nature's resources so that in this sense the story was true.

Were Than Sin.
 "There is more in this human life of ours than sin. There is God working thru all to subdue sin and to building up a kingdom of righteousness and love. The triumph of God's goodness is greater than the ravages of evil. We have witnessed an outburst of dishonor and brutality during the last year that has shocked the entire world, but there has been set over against it a multitude of things that are ennobling and that show devotion and self-sacrifice.
 Men are as ready as ever to die for a cause that is big. In Canada there is being created a new type of heroism and self-sacrifice for high ideals that will proclaim to future generations that the world does not live by bread alone. We never really lose by being generous," concluded the speaker.
 "We never diminish our real wealth by sharing it with another."

Miss Annie Cruickshanks Narrowly Avoids Death by Asphyxia-

Special to The Toronto World.
 BROCKVILLE, Ont., Oct. 22.—Miss Annie Cruickshanks, a domestic employed at the residence of A. H.
 Swartz, narrowly escaped asphyxiation. The odor was detected by a member of the family who, going to the room of Miss Cruickshanks, found the jet wide open and the young woman lying in bed unconscious. She will recover.

Lieut. J. J. Dixon, a Brockville boy who fought in the Boer War, has resigned a good position in New York City and returned to Canada to enlist. He is attaching to the 8th Machine Gun Battalion, Hamilton.

NINE COBOURG RECRUITS.

COBOURG, Oct. 22.—Nine additional recruits left here today with Capt. W.
 J. Troop, recruiting officer for the 6th Regiment to join the 80th Battalion at Barfield. Among them were Regt. J. J. Hitchison, who went to the front with the first contingent, and was badly wounded by shrapnel and was invalided home a couple of months ago.

Autumn Leaves

By William Henry Taylor, author of "Canadian Seasons," etc.

October's glorious month! we follow thee, Led by the Spirit-of-the-Woods to roam, Where Autumn's kisses glance from tree to tree, And zephyrs whisper: "We are going home."

The seasons march across the pictured screen, Which hangs before the sun, whereon is drawn A dream in colors by the Fairy Queen, All blended by the Hand which lit the Dawn.

The maples, oaks and birches are arrayed, In robes of shaded crimson, green and brown, With bands and veins of virgin gold o'erlaid—A wealth of dying glory falling down.

The wind is rising. Frost refines the air, Leaf showers thicken drifting, whirling past;
 A sighing, moaning music, low and rare, Now seems to glide when leaves are falling, fast.

But Nature never dies; her moods are kind;
 Her sturdy trees defy the gathering storm;
 Each leaf that falls has left a bud behind, Encased in downy sheaths to keep it warm.

These are the days when men and leaves are strewn In drifts and tangles on the foaming shore, Of that dim No Man's Land, which God has hearn, From Time's Beginning to the Nevermore.

The Cross of Christ is wreathed with bloody leaves, And crowned with thorns from trees of human woe;
 An Antichrist has stacked his harvest sheaves On countless Marys' Hearts which overflow.

This Autumn of the World now views a Lord Flaming Cross and Crescent on his sable shield; His Huns and Turks are keeping watch and ward On Danube's banks, and Salem's burial field.

A hundred years ago, from God's right hand, A bolt was hurled, as now, to clear the sky—Napoleon stamped his foot, and Tyrantland Was strewn with kings, like leaves that fade and die.

Alas! Our Maple Leaves have fallen fast, In those brown trenches 'yond the Belgian shore; But noble bands of brethren hurry past, Who shout: "Revenge! Canadians pay the score!"

IN HOUSE OF LORDS

Earl Grey Queries War Office re Those With the Canadians.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Some interesting disclosures have recently been made here regarding the position of Salvationist chaplains with the Canadian forces. The question was brooked from Earl Grey's question in the House of Lords upon the matter.
 Commissioner Lamb, of the S.A., which provoked from Earl Grey a question in the House of Lords upon the matter.
 Commissioner Lamb spoke of the "curious differentiation of treatment under which Canadian Salvationist officers, while carrying on their work among the forces while in England, were not permitted to accompany them to the front.

In the house of lords, Lord Newton replied that the question was under the consideration of the military authorities in France, and that the army council was not disposed to see any objection to duly commissioned chaplains of the S.A. accompanying Canadian troops on the continent. Lord Newton ventured the personal conclusion that difficulty might arise in France owing to the semi-military basis of the Salvation Army. "Considerable confusion and perplexity might perhaps be caused among French officials if they were called upon to deal with individuals apparently of high military rank who on investigation turned out not only to be not military officers, but possibly officials belonging to the opposite sex."

Fears Groundless.
 Commissioner Lamb, writing to the press, makes answer that Lord Newton's fears are groundless as the Salvation Army has not up to the present considered the appointment of "chaplains of the opposite sex." The commissioner adds that his lordship might have found some women appointed of high military rank during his visit to the forces.

Incidentally he also mentions how the "Church Times" has drawn attention to the lack of efficiency in the chaplain's department, asserting that chaplains have been appointed "who are incompetent to manage a boys' or bible class." The same paper declares that the present chaplain-general should give way to another, and pleads that it is attacking the present system and not the man.

THIRD AMBULANCE
HAS BEEN DONATED

Col. Noel Marshall Accepts Motor From McLaughlin Company and Employees.

BUILT ON NEW LINES

Design Was Approved by Officers Serving at the Front.

Col. Noel Marshall, on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Society, was the recipient on Saturday afternoon of the third motor ambulance to be presented to the association by the McLaughlin Carriage Company and employees. The ambulance will be used in connection with the military hospital at the Exhibition camp, where there are now some three hundred men on the sick list. It was in turn presented to the hospital staff, in charge of Colonel Richardson, by Colonel Marshall on behalf of the Canadian Red Cross Association.

Following the presentation, which was made by Robert McLaughlin, president of the company, a photograph of the car was taken with the donors and members of the Canadian Red Cross in the foreground, after which the men and officers of the Army Medical Corps stationed at the Exhibition lined up and were also photographed with the ambulance as the central feature.

The car is of the new type designed to accommodate four lying patients or 12 sitting patients. It has been constructed according to the latest designs obtained from British and French sources, and has ample space provided for medicines and other supplies. An ingenious device for carrying the stretchers is a feature of the car.

Safer for the protection of the driver are supplied, and a drop step at the rear enables the ambulance to be backed up to any platform. The rear doors being made to open the full width of the car according to a design approved by the officers serving at the front.

In presenting the ambulance, Mr.
 McLaughlin said that altho it was the third car to be given by his company and the employees, there would surely be more to follow. Colonel Richardson declared that it was the very thing needed, and expressed the hope that the Red Cross would be able to secure two more ambulances for that particular hospital as they were urgently needed.

The employees of the company were represented by Tios. Hawkes and John T. Gibson. Others present were Oliver Hesselwood of the McLaughlin Carriage Company, Walter Curry, K.C., and A. F. Ritter.

For five years Wallingford has rollicked him to be the greatest American character-

It is something to have brought Wallingford into moving pictures and it is a fact that if you come today and see this peculiar financial genius that you are probably going to watch him for many weeks to come.

You are going to find in the Wallingford pictures a treat such as is rarely brought to you in the "movies"

 Pauline," "The Goddess," and who are able to bring the best stars into the best plays produced without hesitancy at expense, but intent on mak-

Pathe is the manufacturer of the motion pictures and Pathe motion pictures mean the best today.
 Leopold Wharton and his brother have been chosen as the directors because there are no directors in America who can equal them.

If there was any man in the world who was best qualified to play Wallingford, he it was who was to be chosen and that is why Burr McIntosh, the great character actor is to be seen in the name part with all the comedy that he is capable of, with all the pathos he is capable of, with all the classic acting that his career of 20 years has them in the Cosmopolitan Magazine? All the characters you have known are coming to life exactly as you have pictured them in your im-

Don't think your imagination is going to be jarred. It is going to be pleasantly lead on and all of your stories of Wallingford will assume so much more interesting a value.

For instance Blackie Daw will be played by Max Figman. I ask you—is there anybody in all moving pictures that you know of that you yourself could have suggested as better fitted to play this part? If you were to see him in moving pictures you would say to us that Mr. Figman is the very man for the part. Why, he is Blackie Daw.

And then, too, Lolita Robertson will play Vi-

F. E. Fleming, an employe at the was astonished on Saturday morning to see a live snake, two feet in length, curled around a bunch of bananas which had recently arrived in the warehouse. The reptile apparently had been affected by the cold climate and did not resent its removal to warmer quarters. Here the snake showed unmistakable signs that it was in a famished condition and made hasty inroads on the food that was thrown in to it. After satisfying its hunger the snake did several peculiar tricks with its fangs which convinced Mr. Fleming that the snake is a poisonous one.
