

own salvation. "Occupy till I come!" saith your Lord to you! If you use your several talents well, a glorious reward awaits you. There may be—there are—trials in the path wherein ye go. The thorns of the earthly crown may again and again pierce brow and heart. But if ye are faithful to the end the victory is certain, and the heavenly crown is sure. And, oh, who shall tell the radiancy of that smile that shall welcome you when your earthly sand has run out; when you who have been faithful in a very little shall receive rule and authority from the Great King Himself, in the dawning of that wondrous day when the Saints shall judge the world?

---

N.B.—Communications may be addressed to

REV. JOHN GARRETT,	} Secretaries to the Columbia Mission.
Vicar of St. Paul, near Penzance, And Commissary to the Bishop of Columbia.
G. P. ARDEN, ESQ.
Halstead, Essex.	} 3, Waterloo Place, S.W. London.

---

Contributions may be paid to the account of the COLUMBIA MISSION, at Messrs. COUTTS & Co., 59, Strand; Cox & Co., Craig's Court, Charing Cross; SMITH, PAYNE, & SMITHS, 1, Lombard Street; SIR JOHN LUBBOCK, Bart., FOSTER & Co., Mansion House Street, City; 79, Pall Mall; and at Messrs. D. LA TOUCHE & Co., Castle Street, Dublin.