

3. A PICNIC—II

ate	vale	came	shade	dates
late	dale	game	glade	plates

It was late when they got to the lake.

The lake was in a vale or dale.

All sat in the shade to lunch.

They ate ham and eggs, buns and dates.

See the basket, cups, plates and dishes.

Then Kate and Grace went to the glade.

They had a game of tag in the glade.

Kate and Grace came back to the lake.

4. A PICNIC—III

tale	wave	wade	gaze	Dave
gale	save	fade	blaze	brave

James and Mr. Blake went on the lake.

They gazed at a blaze across the lake.

Mr. Blake began to tell James a tale.

A strong gale dashed a wave on James.

James lost his hat in the wave.

His big dog, Dave, swam to save it.

See Dave wade and save the hat.

Grace and Kate think the hat will fade.
