MANIFOLD INTERESTS OF BEWICK-MOREING CO.

Two Groups of Claims to Be Prospected This Summer—Forty-seven Lots in All.

PORCUPINE CITY, May 9.—(From Our Main Up North.)—Hand drilling in all the shafts now being put down by Bewick-Moreing will be continued. Instead of sinking by compressor plants as first planned.
This announcement is made to-day by Manager Williams, who has charge of the entire Bewick-Moreing interests in the camp with Engineer Kluge still looking after the work on the company's newly acquired interests in the Rea Mines.

"I find that in this country it is so much cheaper and easier to run down a shaft by hand till good depth is reached than by compressor plants. I will use more of them," said Manager Williams to-day.
A camp known as Camp No. 1, has been established on the three Timmins claims to the east of Pearl Lake, where the three Timmins claims trenching and camps for the accommodation of 75 men are up.
A compressor plant with power for six drills and a steam engine has been placed for action when needed. Only two drills will in all probability be used this summer in prospecting. On the three Timmins claims trenching and stripping to locate and pick up leads as indicated thru the quartz outcrops are in progress. Sinking has just started this summer in many places the sand covering is deep.
At Camp No. 2 in North Tiedale, work is proceeding on the associated Dunlop claims, where trenching and stripping is also being resorted to in efforts to pick up quartz deposits that may be the richest in the district. Sinking here has just started by hand. The ever-burden is heavy. The compressor plant is a duplicate of the one at Camp No. 1.

According to Mr. Williams, all that the Bewick-Moreing Company can do this summer is to prospect these two groups, all other claims being shelved for the meantime. The eight claims all told will furnish some acreage to the company, but the main interest is in the Rea Mines, Limited, to the Bewick-Moreing Syndicate, Manager Williams becoming in charge of this institution also, but with a multitude of other duties to perform, he has persuaded Engineer Kingmill, in charge of the work on the associated main management Consolidated Goldfields, to continue in charge of the mine work.

On the Rea a shaft is down over 200 feet, with drilling in progress to measure up the vein, to determine width, pay chutes, refractory ore, and to get a general average run of the assays in the vein. It will have to be counted upon for dividends. Free gold shows in the pay chutes, but mine men count on the assays to help hold up the lean ones, and should a happy average of 7 or 8 to the ton be blocked out, there would be rejoicing. The average will be high, but the management are not predicting, nor are they guessing. They are working. Results must show for themselves.

WORK TO START ON ELSDORADO.

Part of the crew to commence work on the properties of the Eldorado Mines Company, Limited, left Toronto last night. Other men have been engaged in Porcupine and aggressive development is expected to be started by the beginning of next week.

GOLD AND SILVER FOUND DISTRICT SHOWS UP WELL

Chicago-Gowanda Mines Company Properties Look Promising on Development.

The Chicago-Gowanda Mines Company, Limited, have sent out to their shareholders a report on their properties, which are located in the Montreal River and Gowanda districts.
The company have completed this year's assessment work on their claim on Wapoose River in the Montreal River district. From a depth of 11 feet to a vein 4 feet wide, and it was found that the vein showed an increase in mineralization as depth was attained. From a depth of 5 feet to the bottom of the pit quantities of black muck, or decomposed vein matter, were encountered.
Assays made of vein matter averaged $9.02 in gold and silver to the ton, with the big part of the values in gold. One sample ran $2.12 in gold and 32 cents in silver to the ton.

Of this claim report says: There seems no doubt that we have a large vein of gold bearing vein on claim M R 2356 with values increasing as we go down, and it is hoped that as soon as the snow and ice have disappeared, we will be able to start a crew of 5 or 6 men sinking a shaft on this vein. The indications are, that it is a valuable claim and it is quite possible that we will run into high gold values before reaching a depth of 50 feet.
The Chicago-Gowanda Mines Company, Limited, are working on a claim in Shillington Township, and the work at this property is promising. The installation of the machinery at the main shaft has been completed. The engine was started on April 1. The main shaft at the mine is down 130 feet, and should be down to the 200-foot level by the end of the month. A close-cut will be run to cut the mineralized veins which were encountered in sinking the shaft.
Several good discoveries have been reported in the vicinity of La Vigne Lake lately, and according to recent report the district bids fair to become a producing silver area, as well as a promising silver area.
