HERE IS THE OVERCOAT TO CARRY ON SATURDAY

The man with a new Fall Overcoat "has something" on you, if you haven't got round to buying yours yet.

But on Saturday you may square the account with an investment of EIGHT DOLLARS AND NINETY-FIVE CENTS.

Our faith in the supremacy of our Fall Overcoats is based on the certainty that materials, down to the trimmings and workmanship, can't be beaten. Oxford and Cambridge greys and black chevots are going out with collars that fit the necks of satisfied customers. Not only is the general appearance good, but every button-hole is built to last. Such coats have sold up to $15.00. Our price on Saturday is

In the Hat Section

There is a Special Sale. The hats in question are the best hats coming from English makers. Every style, every shape, and every make is included, and there is bound to be the hat you want.

Do You Want a Good Shirt at a Bargain Price? The man who has too many wearable shirts hasn't been found yet.

In the same section there are 150 suits of Pyjamas on sale; some of them are beauties, being priced at $6.00 a suit. Look in the windows.

$.98 buys one of those $6.00 Suits on Saturday, if you come early.

Here is a Sample of a Dressy Suit for Young Men at $12

It hardly seems credible that so good-looking a suit could be produced for the money in any way, capable of standing hard wear. But this suit will do so. Come and look at it. Material is a fine English tweed, in brown mixture herringbone, and the tailoring is excellent. Saturday 12.00

There are other handsome Suits for young men at 20.00 and 24.00

In the Section Devoted to Boys

there are two specials for Saturday, and you won't have to cut a piece off your boy to avail yourself of the opportunity. These two suits are suitable for any young hopeful between the petticoat and the trouser stage.

Firstly, there is a Russian Suit for the little fellow, made of dark brown English worsted, with a leather belt and bloomer pants. Price 5.00

Then there is a Scotch Tweed Suit, made on an American single-breasted model. This is a finely tailored suit at a reasonable price.
