

hushed up by the censor, but he had taken steps to have the ban lifted and when at last the news had been given to the public...

Mr. Palmer declared that the sermon he preached to the Orangemen at Hespeler on Sunday last was not his own, but that it was handed to him by the military authorities and it was only after that sermon had been delivered that the censorship was lifted.

He made a statement respecting the son of Hon. C. J. Doherty and pointed out that he had actual information that he was his twentieth year, that he entered the novitiate on March 20, 1918, at a time when his father was framing new charges to the M.S.A., knowing that it would take in his son. He also pointed out that while it had been stated he was unfit for military service he had not been examined by a military medical board, but by a private doctor.

Major Rev. Canon H. C. Dixon gave a brief review yesterday of the changes and events at Little Trinity during the fourteen years of his ministry. Canon Dixon addressing the congregation at the morning service said that it was a great privilege to have the young men of the age of 19 to do. Why should he be treated any different than other boys?

Not one of the novitiate officials had said a single word as to this young man's age, which was most significant, and stated emphatically that the minister of justice had sent his son to the novitiate in order to save them from military service.

During the time of the great influx of immigrants, the church had to deal with the problem of the influx of many foreigners, many of whom were out of money and had no money to go to, being enabled to do this by the benevolence of many friends of the church throughout the city.

Demands a Public Enquiry. In dealing with the case of Capt. A. C. MacAuley, who was the officer in command at the time of the raid, and who has since been transferred to Winnipeg, Mr. Palmer said he had demanded by wire to Ottawa tomorrow morning that the official statement of Capt. MacAuley to the minister of justice be published.

The whole question, he declared, should be treated impartially, and should be taken out of the hands of Hon. C. J. Doherty. It was not British justice to deprive all the Catholic institutions, such as the Guelph Novitiate should be filled up, and planning to enlarge their premises.

In closing he said, "I am in this fight to the finish. If I cannot fight with the boys in the front, I am going to see that justice is done."

Mr. Palmer intimated that he had a lot of other information which he had intended to give tonight, but he decided to withhold it as he was going to attend an important conference in Toronto on Monday.

SCORE'S SPECIALS IN SUMMER WORSTEDS AND FLANNEL SUITINGS. For special mention—The recent shipment of English worsted in pinhead broken checks and hairline stripes effect...

A COALITION VICTORY. London, June 23.—The Cleghon election meeting on Saturday evening, the sitting member, being raised to the peerage, resulted in a coalition victory.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED. The first phase of the Austrian offensive has ended in failure—in defeat. The culmination of what was intended to be the crushing of Italy between the jaws of the Austrian pincers is the rout of the invaders themselves.

With their backs to the swollen Piave River, the Austrians for several days past had been trying to ward off the vicious counter-attacks of the Italians, and Serbian and French troops, who they are endeavoring, an still under great pressure, to ford the stream and reach safety on the eastern bank.

From the Montello Plateau to the Adriatic Sea, the enemy is in retreat. The river is literally clogged with his dead. Already his losses are estimated at 180,000 men, and the chances of his escape without additional heavy casualties, and men made prisoners, seem remote.

Large numbers of the pontoon bridges the Austrians threw across the Piave have been swept away by the river's torrential stream, and on all the sectors of the 33-mile front where they gained edges of the Venetian plain they are being overwhelmed.

Monster preparations had been made by the Austrians for what was to be the death blow to King Victor Emmanuel's army. Thousands upon thousands of men, many of them brought from the Russian and Rumanian fronts, and guns and stores in tremendous quantities had been parceled among the various commanders for the Russian and Rumanian fronts, and guns and stores of virtually one hundred miles, spanning from the Asiago Plateau to the Piave River, and then following that stream to the sea.

Undoubtedly the Austrian high command had built largely for success on the belief that the Italian morale had been shattered—rather than that it was a bluff.

On the battle fronts in France and Flanders the Germans are holding their men to the trenches, except for small attacks here and there. There is no indication that for the present it is their intention to launch another big offensive.

On the battle fronts in France and Flanders the Germans are holding their men to the trenches, except for small attacks here and there. There is no indication that for the present it is their intention to launch another big offensive.

REVIEWS HISTORY OF LITTLE TRINITY

Major H. C. Dixon Points to Two Records by His Congregation.

Toronto's oldest Anglican church, historic old Trinity, popularly known as Little Trinity, "the mother church of Toronto," East King street, is celebrating with largely attended impressive service its seventy-fifth anniversary.

Major Rev. Canon H. C. Dixon gave a brief review yesterday of the changes and events at Little Trinity during the fourteen years of his ministry. Canon Dixon addressing the congregation at the morning service said that it was a great privilege to have the young men of the age of 19 to do.

During the time of the great influx of immigrants, the church had to deal with the problem of the influx of many foreigners, many of whom were out of money and had no money to go to, being enabled to do this by the benevolence of many friends of the church throughout the city.

Demands a Public Enquiry. In dealing with the case of Capt. A. C. MacAuley, who was the officer in command at the time of the raid, and who has since been transferred to Winnipeg, Mr. Palmer said he had demanded by wire to Ottawa tomorrow morning that the official statement of Capt. MacAuley to the minister of justice be published.

The whole question, he declared, should be treated impartially, and should be taken out of the hands of Hon. C. J. Doherty.

Mr. Palmer intimated that he had a lot of other information which he had intended to give tonight, but he decided to withhold it as he was going to attend an important conference in Toronto on Monday.

SCORE'S SPECIALS IN SUMMER WORSTEDS AND FLANNEL SUITINGS. For special mention—The recent shipment of English worsted in pinhead broken checks and hairline stripes effect...

A COALITION VICTORY. London, June 23.—The Cleghon election meeting on Saturday evening, the sitting member, being raised to the peerage, resulted in a coalition victory.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED. The first phase of the Austrian offensive has ended in failure—in defeat. The culmination of what was intended to be the crushing of Italy between the jaws of the Austrian pincers is the rout of the invaders themselves.

With their backs to the swollen Piave River, the Austrians for several days past had been trying to ward off the vicious counter-attacks of the Italians, and Serbian and French troops, who they are endeavoring, an still under great pressure, to ford the stream and reach safety on the eastern bank.

From the Montello Plateau to the Adriatic Sea, the enemy is in retreat. The river is literally clogged with his dead. Already his losses are estimated at 180,000 men, and the chances of his escape without additional heavy casualties, and men made prisoners, seem remote.

Large numbers of the pontoon bridges the Austrians threw across the Piave have been swept away by the river's torrential stream, and on all the sectors of the 33-mile front where they gained edges of the Venetian plain they are being overwhelmed.

Monster preparations had been made by the Austrians for what was to be the death blow to King Victor Emmanuel's army. Thousands upon thousands of men, many of them brought from the Russian and Rumanian fronts, and guns and stores in tremendous quantities had been parceled among the various commanders for the Russian and Rumanian fronts, and guns and stores of virtually one hundred miles, spanning from the Asiago Plateau to the Piave River, and then following that stream to the sea.

Undoubtedly the Austrian high command had built largely for success on the belief that the Italian morale had been shattered—rather than that it was a bluff.

On the battle fronts in France and Flanders the Germans are holding their men to the trenches, except for small attacks here and there. There is no indication that for the present it is their intention to launch another big offensive.

On the battle fronts in France and Flanders the Germans are holding their men to the trenches, except for small attacks here and there. There is no indication that for the present it is their intention to launch another big offensive.

Riverdale Sons of England Decorate Graves

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated.

Large Meeting Hears Argument Regarding Ferry Co. Bylaw

At forty-eight hours' notice the British Imperial Association of Earlscourt called an open air public meeting, which was held on Saturday night at the corner of Bloor and St. Clair avenues, Earlscourt, to protest against the by-law passed by the city council to raise the ferry fares to 15c.

The adjourned meeting of the British Imperial Association, held yesterday, in relation to local conditions affecting alms recipients in business in Earlscourt, Sunday licensees, a request that the city council pass a bylaw compelling alms recipients to put their correct names on their stores, the insanity condition of many of the foreign-owned shops, and misleading local advertisements, formed the subject of discussion in Matly's Hall, where the meeting was held.

The following cable message was ordered sent to Sir Robert Borden: "Try arrange through imperial government, for friendly and friendly subjects, either in their national or British army (Signals), British Imperial Association of Canada."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

"Fair-play" was the keynote of the whole meeting, and while the slogan "Earlscourt for the British" was fully endorsed, it was not intended to reflect upon the foreigner who was often found allied with the British Empire in its world-wide liberty.

It was to "freeze out" the disloyal element and the pro-Germans, rather than to "freeze out" the British.

"Buy your goods at British-owned concerns," was the slogan which was moved a resolution: "That the city council be requested to license all business concerns, and that the city council be requested to license all business concerns."

Mr. MacNicol presided, and said the fact that it was not fair to Earlscourt soldiers that alms should be doing business in this district to the detriment of the British.

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Earlscourt B.P.A.'s Against Raising of Rates

Cambridge Lodge, Sons of England, members, to the number of over 250, headed by the Riverdale branch, Salvation Army Band, headed by St. John Cemetery, Norway, yesterday afternoon, when special services were held in St. John's Church, after which the graves of the departed members were solemnly decorated