U.F.C.-Labor Members in Caucus Want Reform in Patronage System Ottawa Arranges Speedy Distribution of Funds for Unemployed Soldiers

FARMER-LABOR MEMBERS SEEK PATRONAGE SUBSTITUTE MAINS ANY OLD PERNICIOUS FEATURE

Some Regard Privilege of Recommending Candidates for Positions as Belonging to Members, But Merit and Ability Must Count.

Altho patronage has been abolished by the Drury administration, the question of finding a substitute for it without any of the former pernicious characteristics was among the problems discussed at the first caucus of the Farmer-Labor members-elect, held in the reception-room at parliament buildings yesterday, but after the expression of a variety of opinions, no solution was reached.

The patronage phase the members had largely in mind was that relating to the positions for which either the sitting representative or the defeated government candidate has been appointed, under former regimes, to hold as it were in his hand. Some of the speakers frankly stated that they did not quite regard this old-established feature as patronage in the ordinary acceptance of the term, but rather as one of the privileges associated with the position of the representative of the riding. Others again were inclined to throw every appointment open to competition, and thereby eliminate every vestige of patronage from the Ontario government service, a foreshadowed by Premier Drury.

Some Look for Reward.

One member laid stress on the point that not a few election workers or helpers, did not by any means consider that patronage had been abolished, and that many hints had been thrown out that reward of some kind, preferably in the nature of a position, was expected for services rendered in connection with assisting the candidate to the full dignity of parliamentary honor.

The consensus of opinion was said to be unanimous against patronage as it formerly existed, but some thought that if possible the recommendation-for-position arrangement might be continued so long as it was clearly stipulated that no decision should be made in any sense be regarded as in the nature of a "fee or award for political services rendered." Altho, as already indicated, no decision has not yet been made, it was understood that in the event of any recommendation being made by a member for a government position it must have the stamp of merit and ability on the part of the applicant. The members-elect will give further consideration to the whole matter and discuss it again at a future caucus, the date of which has not yet been determined. There will be no substitute for the present at any rate, but probably rather a modification of the old system, so dear to the old political school.

Seats for the Homeless.

The question of finding seats for Premier Drury, Hon Manning Doherty and Hon W. E. Henderson, discussed. Twelve members-elect offered to vacate their seats and a committee was appointed to select the safest and best trio of ridings and make a report to.

LORDS HEAR APPEAL IN MURDER CASE

London, Dec. 19.—The house of lords for the first time in history dealt with a murder trial today when the question arose whether drunkenness was an excuse for murder.

Arthur Beard had been condemned to death for murdering a 13-year-old girl at Chester. The court of criminal appeal quashed the verdict on the ground of the absence of the necessary intent, and the crime was committed and committed the sentence to 20 years' imprisonment.

The house of lords hearing a further appeal brought by the crown authorities, reserved judgment, but the lord chancellor announced that the home secretary had informed the house that the death sentence would not be carried out whatever the final verdict.

CHRISTMAS COMFORT FOR UNEMPLOYED VETERANS OF WAR

Ottawa Announcement States Aid Will Be Extended, Beginning Tuesday.

WILL USE MESSENGERS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 19.—The needy cases among the unemployed returned soldiers in several cities will have relief extended to them in time to enjoy a little Christmas cheer. This has been made possible thru speeding up the preliminary work of arranging for the distribution of relief thru the Canadian patriotic fund. Tonight the forms and documents necessary for the extension of the recently provided relief are speeding on their way to the branches of the patriotic fund, and distribution of the money will have actually begun by Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. As far as possible, it is expected that the distribution will be under way before Christmas day has dawned, and in the centres far away, the money will be available for distribution among the needy cases as soon as the former can reach here.

Brig.-Gen. Ross, who is superintending the distribution of the money, stated that in the case of centres like Toronto, Montreal, Quebec, Hamilton and London, it was not proposed to trust sending the forms thru an already overloaded express service, but they would be forwarded by special messengers, so that there would be the least possible delay. He anticipated that some of the needy cases would have been taken care of by the patriotic fund branches before Monday night. When the work of preparation was commenced it was not thought possible to begin distribution of the money so rapidly, but all energies have been bent toward sweeping obstacles aside and getting the money into the hands of soldiers as their own money with as little delay as possible.

The money is being distributed thru the patriotic fund machinery to ex-members of the forces who are unable.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE IRISH LORD-LIEUTENANT BY WELL PLANNED AMBUSH

Revolvers and Bombs Used in the Attack on Viscount French's Car—Two Policemen Injured and One of Assaults Shot, But Intended Victim Escapes Injury.

Dublin, Dec. 19.—A determined but unsuccessful attempt was made today to assassinate Viscount French, lord-lieutenant of Ireland.

The attack evidently had been most carefully organized at a spot in a narrow, winding road, with high walls and hedges, affording the assassins good hiding places. One of the attacking party was killed, and a detective seated with the chauffeur of the viceregal car was slightly wounded in the hand. Viscount French was not injured. Some distance away a policeman, patrolling his beat, was shot in the ankle.

Both bombs and revolvers were used by the miscreants, the number of which is variously estimated at from five to fifteen. The smaller number, however, is considered more probable. The viceregal party fired on the would-be assassins as they fled across the fields, but all of them made their escape except the one man killed, who was shot thru the head, dying instantly.

Viscount French had been visiting Boyle and Roscommon and returned today by train to Dublin. He alighted at the suburban station at Phoenix Park, near the spot where in 1882 Lord Frederick Cavendish, chief secretary for Ireland, and Thomas H. Burke, his under-secretary, were assassinated. The station is about a mile from the viceregal lodge.

Ambuscade Carefully Planned.

The ambuscade had been carefully planned, the assassins placing obstructions in the narrow part of the road, hoping to compel the motor car to stop. Behind the hedges and walls, in favorable positions, they had stationed themselves for firing upon the lord-lieutenant and his party.

When the automobiles approached the road was blocked by a line of men, who fired and scattered the assassins. The assassins evidently expected Viscount French would be in the second car in the line, and one of the shots were aimed. He, however, was in the first car into which only a few bullets penetrated.

Viscount French had been sitting beside the driver in the viceregal car. He was not injured. The viceregal party opened fire on the ambuscaded men, who took flight on foot. During this shooting one of the men, later identified as having fired the shot which wounded the viceregal party, was seen to throw up his hands and fall. Several of his friends stopped and lifted the body intending to carry it to the hospital, but they abandoned it when they found the man was dead.

Assassin Identified.

Around the fingers of the fallen man was found the ring of a discharged hand-grenade, and in his pocket were two revolvers—one of Spanish make and the other an old German model. Also there was found in his pocket a card which identified him as Savage, the clerk of a spirit and grocery dealer, employed on North Strand, Dublin. From this card it was ascertained that he had deposited a sum of money early in the day, belonging to his employer, and had taken these precautions against attack.

Nevertheless, he is one of the few viceroys of recent years who is credited with personal courage. Instead of depending on officials for police, he always unhesitatingly has announced that his policy was first to restore and maintain law and order, and then to inaugurate home rule. But first of all, he has stood out for the maintenance of law.

The viceregal party was given Viscount French at a period of comparative quiet in Ireland, in recognition of his military service, and as consolation for his withdrawal from the highest army command, that of head of the British forces in France and Belgium.

Since his advent Irish politics have come under the domination of the Sinn Fein. The fact that the viceregal party is a military officer, and that there is military occupation, are the principal grievances. All policemen and other officials who aid in the support of British rule have been proclaimed through southern Ireland as enemies of the country, and the people are forbidden to associate with or speak to them. Placards ordering this boycott have been posted. Generally they have not been signed.

One result of the campaign against policemen has been that the small stations of the Royal Constabulary in the south districts are closed. The police from them have been concentrated in larger barracks, which are virtually fortified places. In Dublin and other cities the police go on their beats in twos and threes for mutual protection, thus leaving unusual opportunities for criminals to work, and criminals are making the most of this fact.

Irish Grievances.

The principal grievances of the Irish republicans at the present moment are stated to be the imprisonment of Sinn Fein leaders and the recent announcement that they are to be treated as ordinary criminals and not released if they go on hunger strikes; the suppression of The Freeman's Journal and minor weeklies; the ban on cattle fairs and other social gatherings; the suppression of the centres of anti-government activity, altho prominent Unionists of County Clare have protested asserting that this plan has suppressed trading by farmers and not prevented crime, and the order decreasing that permits for all motor cars, except large lorries, shall be issued by the police authorities, which led to a chauffeur strike.

Lord Mayor Kelly of Dublin has just announced that the mansion house in County Clare has been protected and the order of public gatherings will be closed in order to avoid incidents like those arising from the forbidding of the Christmas bazaar.

CORNWALL REJECTS POWER CO. BYLAW

Is Win for Hydro—By Close Majority, Vote Down Franchise Renewal.

Cornwall, Ont., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—By a vote of 523 to 518 the people of Cornwall today declined to ratify a bylaw which would have granted to the Hydro-Electric Light and Power Co. of Montreal a franchise for the local street railway and gas plant, is owned by the Sun Life Insurance Co. of Montreal. The company already have a franchise which runs until July 1, 1923, but an appeal was made to the town council to extend their franchise for ten years, the company guaranteeing better street lights and a reduction in rates for all purposes.

Hydro Arouses Voters.

The entry into the contest of the Hydro-Electric Commission of Ontario, which has been organized by R. T. Jeffrey, of Toronto, assistant engineer, who addressed public meetings in opposition to the scheme, created a great deal of interest and aroused the people to a much greater extent than otherwise would have been the case. Mr. Jeffrey urged the people not to renew the franchise, but to support the creation of the street franchise and then adopt Hydro.

WHISKEY SEARCH REVEALS LOOT

Alleged Proceeds of Burglaries Including Drugs, Found by Police.

Searching for whiskey yesterday in a house on Trinity square led Plainclothesmen Ward and Clarkson to recover a large quantity of stolen goods and drugs, and to the arrest of three men and one woman. Over $1000 worth of cocaine and heroin, believed to have been stolen from drug stores in different parts of the city, was found in the house. Larry Condon is charged with having "morphine in his possession"; Fred Chan is charged with this wife, Leonie Bosompe is held on the charge of having morphine, and his wife Mary is charged with selling liquor.

Ward and Clarkson entered the house, searching for liquor, and after they had found two quarts of whiskey, placed the woman under arrest. Looking around the room, Ward was attracted by the number of kodaks resting on a table. Remembering that a place had been entered recently and cameras stolen, Ward investigated further. He next located the drugs. On opening a dresser, the plainclothesmen recovered four brand new revolvers. Last night the D. Pike Company, East King street, identified the revolvers as those stolen from their store when it was burglarized four weeks ago today by forcing a rear window and the premises ransacked.

Other goods recovered are said by the police to have been stolen in a house on returning to the past week of the Owl Drug Store, 770 East Queen street, and a drug store at the corner of McPherson avenue and Avenue road.

ROBBED VENDOR'S TRUCK.

While one of the government vendor delivery motor trucks was standing on Sherbourne street, some thirty person passing by picked out four bottles of whiskey and fled. The driver of the truck was in a house and on returning to the truck discovered the theft, and at once communicated with the police.

MANITOBA WILL BAR UNVACCINATED PEOPLE

Winnipeg, Dec. 19.—People from the east in the near future will not be allowed to enter Manitoba without producing a certificate of vaccination against smallpox. Dr. M. S. Fraser, of the provincial board of health, announced today. Only two cases have been discovered in Manitoba. About 20,000 people are vaccinated annually, and health authorities are urging everyone to take this precaution, especially those going east for their holidays, in order to avoid possible trouble en route.

WHY HUMBUNG THE PEOPLE LONGER?

Sir Robert Borden is suffering from a nervous breakdown, perhaps seriously. Certainly he deserves to be released from office. But why hide from the Canadian people that his greater disorder is the political paralysis that has overtaken both him and his government? He can't reconstruct it; he can't get a French-Canadian who commands a seat in the house of commons to join him. Half of his cabinet are pressing to be let out of go; but any one who took a portfolio from him would be defeated if he sought re-election. Within the afternoon that he told his colleagues his determination to resign telegrams were sent out toasting certain of them for the successful.

There is a conspiracy of newspapers to keep the real condition of affairs from the public, why?

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS.

For the benefit of those who cannot shop during the day the Dineen Company will remain open evenings until Christmas. The Dineen Company have in stock numerous articles in men's furs suitable for Christmas gifts: Fur gaiters, Fur collars, Fur coats, Fur caps, Fur rugs, Men's hats, Leather hat boxes, Umbrellas.

With three of the coldest months ahead there is nothing more sensible than a gift of furs. Come into Dineen's at 140 Yonge street today or during the evening and see how moderately priced many of the articles are.

SEE TWO ROBINS.

Lindsay, Ont., Dec. 19.—Barriester A. M. Fulton saw and heard two robins in his orchard yesterday, and it was his belief that they were singing happily. They put to naught The Globe's "hardy annual."

NO STRIKE REPORT BY ROBSON UNTIL LEADERS' TRIAL IS OVER

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 19.—No reports will be made by the Robson commission which investigated the strike last spring until after the trial of the Labor leaders, it was intimated in government circles today. Premier T. C. Norris stated that this decision had been reached by the government owing to the possible influence on the trials now taking place.

G.T.R. TO RESTORE SERVICE.

Notice has been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway that all the trains which they were compelled to take off owing to the recent coal shortage will be restored on and after Dec. 23.

HON. SENATOR A. C. P. LANDRY DIES AT QUEBEC.

Quebec, Dec. 20.—Hon. Senator Augustus Charles Phillippe R. Landry died this morning at the age of 73 years and 11 months. He had been ill for some time. He is the father of Brigadier-General Landry, officer commanding military district No. 5, of this city.

Senator Landry was born in Quebec, Jan. 18, 1846, and was educated at Quebec Seminary and Laval University.

CAR COLLIDES WITH TELEPHONE POLE

One man was probably fatally injured and two women badly hurt when an automobile in which they were driving struck a telegraph pole at the corner of Gladstone and Montrose avenues at midnight. The car carrying five passengers was west-bound on College street, and as the driver approached Montrose street he swerved to the south of the street to avoid striking a motor car north-bound on Montrose. The automobile struck the pole with terrific force, wrecking the front of the car. The man and two women were riding in the rear seat. The pole struck him on the head, fracturing his skull.

Passengers in another car removed the injured people from the wreckage of the car and drove them to the Western Hospital.

Edna Blair, 18 Grenville street, has a broken leg. Miss Henderson, same address, has a lacerated face and head injuries. Miss King, 27 Ann street, escaped with a shaking up. At an early hour this morning the name of the man seriously injured was not known to the hospital authorities.

Plainclothesmen from Claremont street station were sent out to further investigate the accident.

NURSES AFFILIATE WITH LABOR FEDERATION

New York, Dec. 19.—Several hundred nurses employed in hospitals in this city have formed a union affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, to be known as the Trained Nurses' Association. Local No. 18,461, it became known tonight. The new organization's first act, it is said, will be to present demands for a readjustment of hours and wages. Mrs. Rose Maxwell, secretary of the union, stated that the nurses' chief grievance is their long hours, the average working day of a graduate nurse being 12 hours. It is planned first to organize the 350 trained nurses in New York and Brooklyn hospitals, and then gradually extend the movement thruout the state Mrs. Maxwell said the union intends to obtain the eight-hour day for all nurses.
