Races Were Decided Over a Good

Two trotting races were decided at the Fair yesterday afternoon, and, notwithstanding the rain, the track was in fairly good condition. The race for 2-year-olds brought out four starters, and resulted in an easy victory for Lotus, who won in straight heats, Chas. W. and Sister Geneva being shut out in the first heat. The 3-minute class proved more interesting, and was keenly contested, six heats having to be trotted before it was decided. Of the ifrst heat, which was won by Lulu B., who also captured the second, but was set usek for running, the heat being given to Col. also captured the second, but was set pack for running, the heat being given to Col. Brock. The field was reduced to n'ne in the third heat by the withdrawal of Dan C. Col. Brock won the heat, with Deacon second, but he was placed last for running and pacing. He, however, captured the fourth and fifth heats. The sax'h and last heat proved the most exciting of the race, and was won by C.s. Brock, though Lulu B. finished a neck in front of Deacon, who was about the sarve distance anead of Col. Brock. The judges, however, defect the fourth and fifth heats. The Argyles and Wellingtons have falled to come to terms for a match for tris reason, as best explained by W. Miles, manager of the Argyle B.B.C. hold the city intermediate championship, they should have the right to name grounds, which they did when called upon, the Wellingtons refusing to play. For that reason the Argyles did not bother about their forfeit. Now, if the Wellingtons want the city intermediate championship, they had better be sportsmen, and come to grounds mentioned to their manager. Eime 56%.
