HISTORY OF COLLEGE REVIEWED

By Rev. Principal Sheraton-N. W. Hoyles, K.C., Presided—Some of Those Present.

The cornerstone of the new Convocation Hall and library for Wycliffe College was laid yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremonies.

The chair was taken by N. W. Hoyles, K.C., LL.D., among those present were: Hon. Justice Moss, W. H. Campbell, Stapleton Caldwell, W. E. Kalkins, Henry O'Brien, Thomas MacIntyre and Rev. Prof. Cady, Principal Miller and Carey Ward.

Messages were received expressing regret for absence from the Bishops of Huron and Ontario, Rev. Rural Dean Langtry, Provost MacIntyre, Canon Sanson, Canon Switzer, C. H. Marsh of Lindsay, C. J. James of Hamilton and others.

Rev. Arthur Baldwin read a scripture lesson, and Rev. T. C. Desbarres offered the opening prayer.

In an interesting address, Rev. Principal Sheraton recalled the aim of those who were to preserve the great truths vindicated and set forth by the Reformation; to bring theological education into close touch with the educational system of the province and with the provincial university, and to train its students in the broadest of studies.

WOODBRIDGE TRAGEDY.

Coroner Thinks Much Might Have Been Done. London, June 23.—Nothing startling has further developed in the Woodbridge tragedy of Saturday.

Coroner Ferguson was sworn in at 10 o'clock this morning, and subsequently viewed the body. In his remarks to the jury, Coroner Ferguson said that he thought a great deal might have been done on the post-mortem examination.

He thought it would be well to have two competent men to make a post-mortem examination. He had appointed Dr. Waugh as one of these, but another could not be selected without the consent of the coroner's jury.

THREE MEN KILLED. Seagr, N. J., June 23.—The partially completed bridge caved in at 6 o'clock this morning, and three men were killed.

Good Show at Hanlan's. Quite a large number witnessed the vaudeville performance at Hanlan's Point last evening, and judging by the applause, were well satisfied with the show provided.

To thoroughly enjoy peace at this particular juncture, one should not be without the delicious comfort of a Grande smoke.

Says He Has a Grievance. W. H. Mitchell of 292 Eglinton-avenue is indignant over what he claims as unfair treatment by the police authorities. He was duly appointed by the Commissioners on Tuesday last, but because he was an hour and a half late in reporting on Friday night, the Deputy Chief, he says, told him to go and look for another job. He thinks his case should have gone before the Commissioners, and that the Deputy Chief was taking too much responsibility upon his own shoulders in dismissing him.

Otocerianian's Sudden Death. Elijah Estley, an old man, who had not been in the best of health for some days, died suddenly yesterday afternoon at his home, 157 Spadina-avenue. Dr. Harley Smith reported the circumstances to Coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson, who deemed an inquest unnecessary. Deceased was 84 years of age, and leaves a grown-up family.

COLONIALS REFERRED TO.

Interesting Debate in Imperial House on Finance Bill.

On June 10, in the Imperial House, in the debate on the finance bill, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman said that the Chancellor of the Exchequer had expressed surprise that the debate should have taken the turn of one as to the fiscal relations between ourselves, our colonies, and the rest of the world.

He did not think it was unreasonable on the part of the opposition to think that there might be some connection between the corn tax and the coming conference with the colonial Premiers, especially in view of the expressed belief of these Premiers themselves.

When interrupted by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, he replied: "The right hon. gentleman said that he himself and the government had no intention at present of suggesting any alteration in the fiscal arrangements with the colonies, but would you not think that position last? The matter would undoubtedly come up within the next two or three weeks, not in that form of a resolution in other quarters, where it would be held that the opinion of that house should reach the Premier of the colonies, and that he should see everything done which would remove the cause of friction, and promote good feeling between the country and the colonies, but any such arrangement as had been foreshadowed during the last few years would be an opportunity for friction. As to good feeling, he was all in favor of sentiment, but he would see that sentiment was not mixed up with bargain."

Sir William Harcourt declared there had been no intention of suggesting any alteration in the fiscal arrangements with the colonies, but would you not think that position last? The matter would undoubtedly come up within the next two or three weeks, not in that form of a resolution in other quarters, where it would be held that the opinion of that house should reach the Premier of the colonies, and that he should see everything done which would remove the cause of friction, and promote good feeling between the country and the colonies, but any such arrangement as had been foreshadowed during the last few years would be an opportunity for friction.
