(ABSTRACT OF ANNUAL REPORT.)

PETITE COTE, Jan. 27th, 1882.

We this evening celebrate our twentieth anniversary as a Sabbath School in connection with the Montreal Sabbath School Association of the Presbyterian Church, and we have again to record with gratitude God's preserving care over us.

The average attendance is 4 less than last year, being 28. This may be attributed to various causes, removal from the district, inclement weather, and the necessary duties in connection with farm life.

The lessons of the past year have been full of instruction, and your teachers have endeavored earnestly and faithfully to imprint them upon your hearts.

During the past year, the Church under whose oversight we are placed, has as ever, taken a deep interest in your welfare. It has defrayed the expenses of conveyance, and likewise the premium of insurance on the building and its contents.

The year has not passed without leaving behind it feelings of sadness and sorrow on account of friends removed. These feelings, however, are soothed by the comforting assurance that they are now enjoying that rest which only the saints of God can enjoy. One of these, Mr. James Lewthwaite, was for several years a regular and attentive
