Mrs. Moody, a graduate of the Colegiate Institute and Alma College, St. Thomas, and subsequently of the School of Expression, Boston, Mass., is probably the first Canadian woman who has held the office of chairman of the school board in a large city. She was chairman of the Vancouver School Board in 1917, and has this year been re-elected by acclamation.

Her Many Works.

The Western Woman's Weekly states that while chairman of the board, Mrs.
Moody was either directly responsible, or largely so, for the appointment of a woman physician, in order that all girls

CINDERELLA DANCE AT

COVALESCENT HOSPITAL

A "Cinderella" masquerade party was given at the Military Convalescent Hospital on Tuesday evening by the young ladies of the Canadian Smallwares, Limited, for the patients of that institution. Although all the men were soldiers, not a khaki uniform was seen, all being of them made by the men themselves. Cards, dancing and a short musical program were much enjoyed, the merry party breaking up at midnight.

Association in the Masonic Temple last night.

A committee of five members was appointed to meet the city council with regards to the taking up of the housing scheme as formulated by the Government affecting returned soldiers.

Another question which caused much discussion was the land settlement scheme. Comrade Ruddick and Comrade Major Chisholm were appointed to draw up a resolution regarding the land settlement question. It follows:

"That the land settlement committee of the G. W. V. A. be instructed to in-
