CHAMPION SNIPER ANSWERS LAST CALL

Sergeant Carradus Dies After Lingering Illness—Notable War Record.

Maurice Cecil Carradus, returned veter- an, late of the 7th Battalion, 18 Ethel- wyn avenue, died on Friday in Graven- hurst sanatorium from tuberculosis after a lingering illness in his 39th year. He is survived by his widow.

The funeral, which will be carried out with military honors, will leave L. W. Trull's undertaking parlors, 30 Danforth avenue, this afternoon, for Mount Pleas- ant Cemetery.

The late Sgt. Carradus, who was born in the east end, was well known and popular with a large circle of friends. He was employed as clerk in the water- works department, City Hall.

The deceased was twice wounded while overseas. Enlisting at the outbreak of the war with the 3rd Battalion, he was wounded and gassed at the battle of Festubert. Returning to Toronto and re- enlisted in the 7th Battalion, he lost a limb at the battle of the Somme. He held the singular honor of being the best snip- er in England, receiving the highest marks of any soldier in the British Isles.

OFFICIALLY OPENS EARLSCOURT PARK

Mayor Church Performs Cer- emony Amid Scenes of Great Enthusiasm.

With flaming torches and a process- ion of Earlscourt boy scouts, led by Robert Kirk, a South African war vet- eran, and members of the R. I. A. and a police officer, the ceremony of open- ing the new Earlscourt Park at the corner of Lansdowne and St. Clair, took place on Saturday night. Mayor Church, the board of control and members of the parks department all had a part in the ceremony. Mounted on an improvised stand and with Geo. Willis presiding, the mayor received an ovation and said how glad he was to be present in such a patriotic district as Earlscourt. He had great pleasure in declaring the park officially opened to the public. He congratulated the district on its enterprise, wishing it the best of luck.

USES CROWBAR TO GATHER PARSNIPS

Owing to the hard nature of the ground, a most peculiar method was adopted to gather in the parsnip crop last week by a Belwoods Park plot- holder.

According to Geo. R. Ellis of the East End Citizens' Committee, who was an interested spectator, the gar- dener, armed with a digging fork, tackled the job. Loosening the earth with the fork around each root, he cleared the top earth away, and using the crowbar to delve to the depth of over 18 inches, and finally chopped the parsnips out with the axe. The parsnips, Mr. Ellis stated, were on the average 4 inches in diameter and 18 inches long, and in excellent condition.

MAN UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR TRIES TO STEER, AND CAR OVERTURNS

Parry Sound, Ont., Oct. 23.—(By Canadian Press).—The first fatal auto- mobile accident which has occurred here happened yesterday, when a car driven by Roy Christensen of this town, in which was Emil Kangle of Waubesa as a passenger, ran into a ditch on the Great North road, about four miles north of this place. An in- quest was held last evening on the body of Kangle by Dr. Limbert, coron- er, without a jury. From the evi- dence it was shown that Emil Kangle, who was a 19-year-old Finlander, was somewhat under the influence of liquor, and had been bothering Christensen to let him drive the car and, finally saying he could drive it better than the driver, put his hands on the steer- ing wheel, causing the car to swerve and take the ditch, turning completely over and around, facing in the op- posite direction in which it had been driven.

LITTLE GIRL IS VICTIM OF RIFLE ACCIDENT

Belleville, Ont., Oct. 24.—(Special).—Margaret Crawford, aged seven years, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, who reside near Mar- more Village, inflicted injuries upon herself while handling a gun, result- ing in her death. It appears that the parents went to Marmora Village and left their youngest son, aged nine years, and Margaret at home. Apparently the children got a 44 repeating rifle. The gun had one cartridge in the magazine. The other cartridge had been put away out of reach. It seems they pumped the cartridge into place and the lad staked the rifle on the floor for a minute and while out heard a shot, and when he ran in his sister was lying on the floor with the bullet hole thru her just below the throat. Death was al- most instantaneous.
